In Memoriam

Our Sue

*Her sparkling smile was sweet and bright,
Her laughing eyes were dark as night,
Her life was like the breath of spring—
Her voice—an angel's song to sing.*

*Her skin was like a petal white,
Her beauty filled us with delight,
Her lips were like a deep, red wine,
Her faith in God—a thing divine.*

*She lived her life in sixteen years,
All filled with fun and friends so dear,
We miss her so since she is gone,
And yet her memory lingers on—our Sue.*

Administration

By ROBERTA BLAIR

Behind the scenes in the Enid educational system are the seven members of the Board of Education, who serve voluntarily and without pay. These people really have a special interest in the youth of Enid to devote so much of their time and energy to the administration of the schools.

Officers of the board at present are Dave Bucher, president; Mike Webber, vice-president; Cleo Fisher, Frank Marquis, Forrest Warren, Mrs. Edith Mayberry, and Mrs. Edith Pinkerton, members. Mrs. Pinkerton and Mrs. Mayberry are the first women to be elected to the board. The board also employs help to transact business. They are Martin H. Miller, clerk; Charles W. Carroll, auditor; Paul Edwards, attorney; and Bonnie Hilsabeck, stenographer. The treasurer, whom the city is responsible for electing, is Henry H. Davis.

The Board of Education is the governing body of the school system and is elected by the people. Each member serves for four years, with half of the board being elected every two years. Members are elected on a non-partisan ticket on the same date that city officials are chosen.

Various functioning committees include the purchasing, teachers, building and grounds, finance, insurance, and custodians' committees.

The Board of Education holds regular meetings the first Monday of each month, but may hold special meetings during the month. At its sessions the board allows claims, works out the budget, takes care of all fiscal reports and financial matters, and establishes the policies of the school system. It has the final word in the election of personnel to school positions. It is the duty of Superintendent of Enid schools, DeWitt Waller, who is elected by the board, to carry out the board's decisions and to recommend qualified employees and teachers.

Through the efforts of the board, the new wing of the high school has been completed, and another of their projects is the construction of two new elementary schools and a Negro elementary building.

The students of Enid High School would like to express their appreciation for the wonderful service and untiring work of these seven members of the Enid Board of Education.

Executives

By

Marilyn Jolley and Janie Mayberry

The efficient and smooth running machine that is Enid High School is made possible by the unending labors of two outstanding Enid citizens. They are DeWitt Waller, superintendent of Enid schools, and D. Bruce Selby, principal of Enid High School. By means of their hard work, these two civic minded leaders are assisting in the education and development of the future citizens of Enid.

Mr. Waller spends a great deal of his time in civic and educational activities such as: Lions Club, the American Legion, Masons, Enid Education Association, Oklahoma Education Association, National Education Association, National Society for the Study of Education, and Phi Delta Kappa, a national education fraternity. He also serves on the Salvation Army Board, the YMCA Board, the Enid Recreation Board, the Enid Library Board, and is a member of the Boy Scout Council.

Coming to Enid in 1911, Mr. Waller was athletic coach and chemistry and mathematics teacher for the next four years. Then following his work as principal from 1915 to 1934, he became superintendent of schools, a position he now holds.

Father of two children, Marilyn and Barbara, Mr. Waller is also very proud of his two grandchildren, David and Doug.

Not only has Mr. Waller helped make possible the rebuilding and re-occupation of the high school, but he is also aiding the expansion of Enid by his work towards the building of several new elementary schools.

Mr. Selby also has been an active member in innumerable clubs all his life. He has been an executive officer of the Kiwanis Club, the State Committee for the North Central Association, the Board of Control of Oklahoma High School Athletic Association, the Oklahoma Education Association, the Enid Education Association, the National Education Association, and the National Association of Secondary School Principals.

Mr. Selby became principal of Enid High School in 1934. For five years prior to this he was principal of Longfellow Junior High School. The four years preceding this, he spent as Enid athletic coach and Science teacher.

Coming to Oklahoma with his parents from Vine Grove, Kentucky, where he was born, Mr. Selby was the sixth of a family of twelve. He now has two children, Mary Esther and David.

Mr. Selby is greatly deserving of a vote of appreciation from the citizens of Enid for his tireless performance and well-spent time in giving Enid one of the outstanding high schools of the nation. His sincere personal interest in the students of FHS has made him a favorite of all who have attended high school under him.

The city of Enid has found a pair of excellent school leaders as well as finely molded men in these two individuals. Their devotion and interest in their work have made them outstanding in their fields and friends to all their students.

MR. D. BRUCE SELBY, Principal

Playing their second season under Ed Brady, the Enid Plainsmen, running from their powerful double wing formation, amassed a total of eight wins against only three defeats, a record identical to that of last year's team.

Five thousand two hundred fans watched the Plainsmen in their opener September 9 and saw them unveil a fine ground attack as Guthrie fell 38-0. The "big three" of the Enid backfield, Meyers, Shipley, and Zimmerman, found the Guthrie end zone to their liking and together scored all the Plainsmen's counters, Meyers ripped off a 73-yard run, the longest of the night.

Piling up 298 yards rushing, the Plainsmen rolled past Putnam City 45-0. The Enid line, spearheaded by Larry Welch, charged vehemently and were abetted by the hard running Plainsmen backs. Zimmerman scored four touchdowns, one a beautiful 53-yard return of an intercepted pass. At halftime Doris Akridge, popular Senior, was crowned 1949 Band Queen by Bob Schwartz, Band President.

The following week, the Plainsmen met their first Mid State Conference opponent, the Norman Tigers, on Plainsmen Field. In a hard-fought battle, the Warriors of West Wabash emerged victorious 19-7. Shipley came off the sick-bed to score all of Enid's points. With Fred Meyers on the throwing end, the Plainsmen showed an enthusiastic crowd a splendid passing attack.

With their ace fullback, Fred Meyers, sitting out with an injured leg muscle, the Plainsmen, sparked by Jerry Shipley's 69-yard punt return, defeated their second conference rival, the Shawnee Wolves, 27-0. Shipley's run, the most scintillating of the season, gave the Plainsmen a narrow 7-0 halftime margin, but they caught fire, and with Zimmerman and Keith raiding the Wolves' goal line, they climbed to the top of the Mid-State ladder.

Racking up their fifth victory in a row and their third straight conference win, the Plainsmen clipped the wings of their arch rivals, the Central Cardinals, 26-0 at Taft Stadium in Oklahoma City. On the third Enid play of the game, Shipley cut off left tackle and behind beautiful blocking raced 60 yards for a TD. Lowell Harman, filling in for the injured Meyers, plowed across for the next Plainsmen tally. Zimmerman and Shipley each added another six-pointer as the Plainsmen strengthened their top Mid-State rank-

The largest crowd ever to witness an athletic contest in Enid, 8,500 screaming fans, jammed Plainsmen Field to watch the two top football powers of the state, the Plainsmen and the Capitol Hill Redskins, clash in the "game of the week." A crushing ground attack displayed by the Redskin backs was too much for the Plainsmen, and they fell 25-12, perhaps to the finest ball club ever to appear on the Enid gridiron. A fighting Plainsmen line held the powerful Redskins to a 7-6 halftime margin, but with Koch, Miller, and Van Pool carrying the mail the Hill boys wore down the Plainsmen in the last half. Shipley and Meyers counted Enid's tallies on a plunge and a pass respectively.

Again playing in the game of the week, "an underdog" Plainsmen eleven knocked off a previously undefeated Ponca City team 13-6 in Ponca City. The Wildcats took the opening kickoff and drove 73 yards for a touchdown and a 6-0 lead which they held at halftime. Fired up by a halftime lecture by Coach Brady, the Plainsmen immediately came back in the ball game. Fred Meyers, behind brutal blocking, rambled 77 yards for a TD. Not a Wildcat man was left standing by the Plainsmen line. An intercepted pass by Shipley set up the final Plainsmen counter as Keith scored on a quarterback sneak. As a result of his fine line play, Sam Cerny, hard-working Enid guard, was named "Lineman of the Week" by the Daily Oklahoman. Congratulations Mr. Cerny.

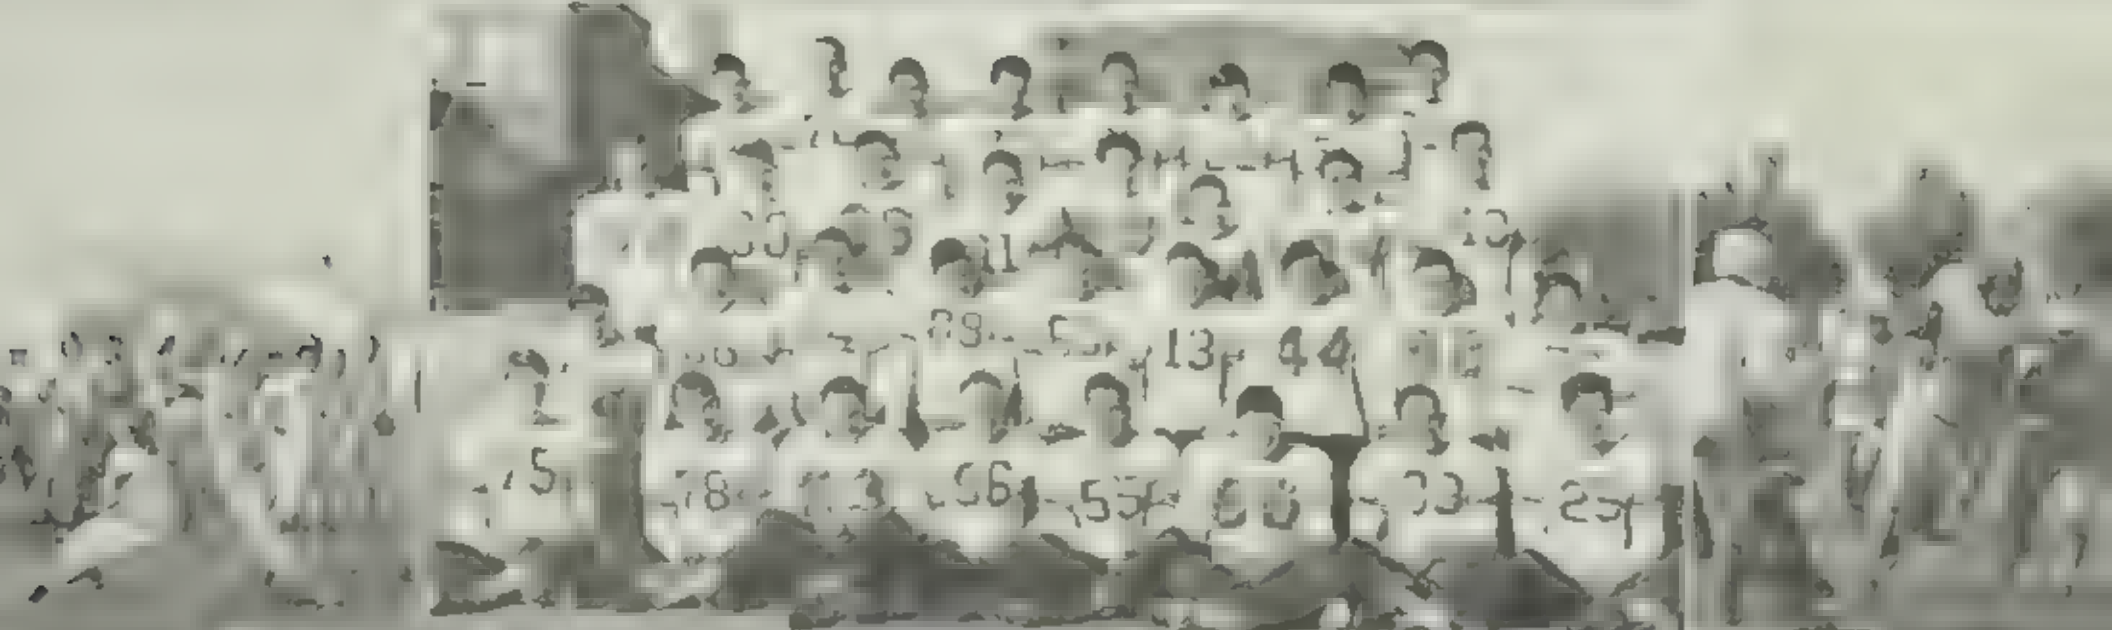

Facing an up and coming Classen team the following week, the Plainsmen, with their starting backs crippled early in the contest, went down to their second defeat of the season 21-13 at Taft Stadium in Oklahoma City. Brutal line play by the Comets held the Plainsmen at bay, and the Classen team turned a blocked punt into a 7-0 lead which they maintained at the finish. The Warriors of West Wabash fought back time and again, but in the end the rugged Classen line was the difference.

The Plainsmen could not have given their pretty football queen and the former lettermen of Enid High a more enjoyable night as they displayed their most potent offense of the season, running roughshod over the Northeast Vikings 47-0 in their final Mid-State game of the year. Meyers, Zimmerman, Shipley, and Burdick all found the Northeast end zone with a Meyers-Shipley spectacular 40-yard running pass the most exciting play of the game. Miss Sally Evans, attended by Ann Allen and Thelma Danahy, was crowned Football Queen of 1949 by Co-Captain Shipley during halftime ceremonies.

The Plainsmen traveled to the "short grass country" for their next game, a tilt with Altus, and gained revenge for the defeat last year by blasting the Bulldogs 36-0. Shipley and Meyers combined for 140 yards with the opening kickoff and taking advantage of Altus fumbles, the Plainsmen held a 21-0 halftime margin and coasted to victory. Three touchdowns by Shipley, one each by Meyers and newcomer Earl Baugher, plus a safety accounted for the Plainsmen tally.

Closing the '49 season with their arch rivals, Hump Daniel's traditionally tough Perry Maroons, the Plainsmen met their third defeat 25-21. It was a thriller all the way with both teams scoring freely. Gerónimo Terronez, Perry's outstanding quarterback, showed the Enid fans brilliant passing, while Meyers and Shipley carried the bulk of Enid's load. Meyers gave the crowd a thrill with a 53-yard touchdown jaunt off tackle. The Plainsmen were knocking at the Perry goal as the final gun sounded.

A fitting climax to a great season came in assembly as Coach Brady awarded letters and jackets to thirty lettermen—nineteen Seniors, ten Juniors and one Sophomore. The lettermen included Richard Zimmerman, Larry Welch, Jerry Shipley, Fred Meyers, Howard Keith, Gene Bailey, Don Harris, Kenneth Franklin, Francis O'Neill, Bob Wentworth, Jim Allison, Bob Boerner, Leonard Cokeley, Felix Lenox, Fred Burnham, Robert Cooley, Sam Cerny, John White, Gene Stunkle, and Jerry Atkinson, all Seniors, Rodney Holcomb, Ray Ruzek, Bob Miller, Lowell Harman, Chuck Athey, Steve Champlin, Max Crandall, Roy Arnold, Jim Finnegan, Evert Burdick, and Don Thomas, the last eleven returning next year to carry the Blue and White to another great season.

Managers who did a fine job this year and were awarded letters were Tom Venable, Gene Cummings, Dean Carter, Earl Baugher, and Richard McKee.

ED BRADY

The Athletic Director and Head Coach of Football in Enid High School graduated from Frick, Oklahoma High School where he earned three letters in football, basketball, and baseball, and also secured two track letters.

He entered the University of Oklahoma where he played freshman football and lettered in cross-country track.

The following year Coach Brady entered Southwestern State Teachers' College at Weatherford, where he lettered three years in football, baseball, and track.

Upon graduation, he assumed the coaching job at Anadarko, producing outstanding teams in football, basketball, and track.

After three years he went to Canyon, Texas, where he produced conference champions in football and also turned out fine basketball, baseball, and track teams.

Returning to Oklahoma, he took the coaching job at Sayre where he remained six years. In 1936, he coached the mythical state champs in football and won district championships in basketball.

Moving to Okmulgee in 1938, Brady again won the mythical state football championship and also two conference titles. In 1940, he coached the North team in the annual North-South All-Star game.

In 1941, Brady went into the Navy, rising to the rank of Lieutenant Commander. At Moffett Field, California, he was Athletic Director and Director of Military Training, producing the fourth ranking basketball team on the Pacific coast.

After his discharge in 1945 he returned to Okmulgee where, in 1947, he produced the state Class A Football Champions. He also coached the Oklahoma All Stars in the annual Oil Bowl game against the Texas All Stars.

Last year, his first at Enid High, Brady produced a ball team that won the Mid State Conference and was Semi-Finalist in the State Playoffs. And another fine team this year adds to the long list of Ed Brady's coaching achievements.

JOHN PROVOST

Enid High extended a warm welcome to a new member of the Coaching Staff this year in the person of John Provost, who along with Richard Moseley, handled B Team football.

Coach Provost graduated from Bell, California, High School, lettering in football, baseball, and track. He then came to Oklahoma and entered Northwestern College at Alva. In his Senior year Provost was chosen All Oklahoma Collegiate Conference end and was captain of the team. He also received letters in baseball and track.

After graduating in 1935, Coach Provost began his coaching career at Nash High School where he coached football, basketball, baseball, and track. He moved to Jet after three years and then to Billings before settling at Henryetta as head football coach in 1941.

In 1942, he moved to Woodward where he coached the great Bob Fennimore, Oklahoma A. and M. All American. Nineteen hundred forty-four found Coach Provost in the Navy where he spent two years. After discharge in 1946, he returned to Woodward, coaching football, basketball, baseball, and track.

In 1947 he moved to Carmen High School in the same capacity and remained there until 1949, when he came to Enid.

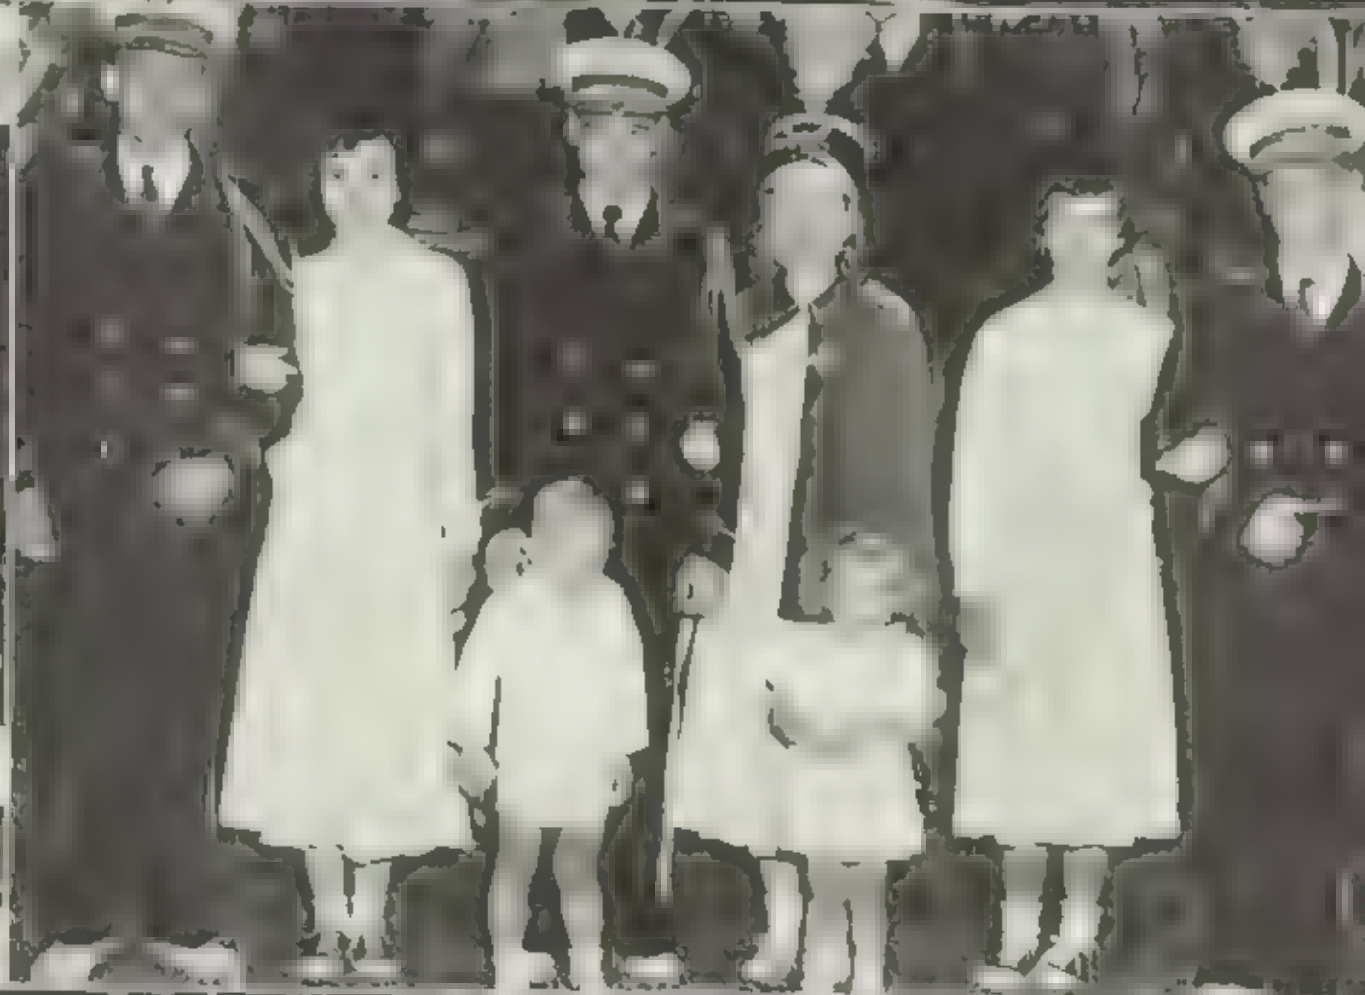

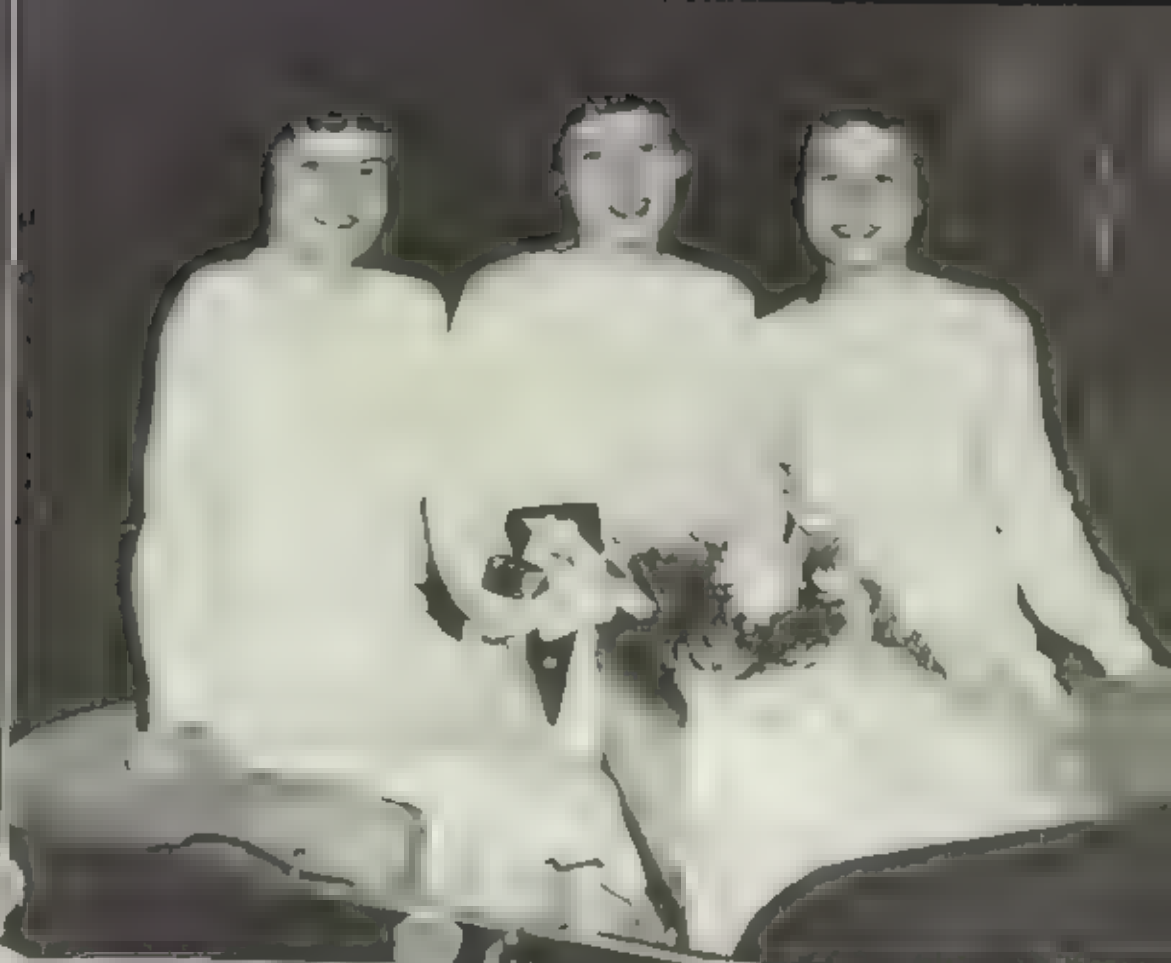

Enid High feels indeed fortunate to have this capable coach added to its athletic staff.

O. T. (Scutters) AUTRY

Assemblies

By DOROTHY BARRICK and LARRY WELCH

"We want assemblies," yelled the students of Enid High School, and that is exactly what they received during the 1949-1950 school year. The assemblies, under the direction of the faculty assembly committee composed of Mr. Hudson Wilcox, Mr. V. O. Marshall, and Mrs. Carol Spencer, presented not only student talent but also many outside performers. They afforded the students pleasure as well as much sound advice and information for the future. Along with these outstanding programs, many pep assemblies cheered Enid athletic teams.

Preceding the Shawnee football game on September 30, Shawnee High School presented an assembly. Bob Knox, Student Body President, introduced John Raley, Shawnee president, who in turn acted as master of ceremonies, introducing Melita Cole, Shawnee football queen and Virginia Perkins, cheerleader. Vocal numbers, piano solos, and a skit entitled "Ladies of the Mop" proved very entertaining to the students. A formal program preceded the assembly with Bob Knox leading the students in the Plainsmen's Creed and pledge to the flag, and Janet Krug leading the singing while Marian Adams accompanied on the piano. Dorothy Barrick read the scripture.

Continuing the policy of exchanging assemblies with the other schools of the Mid State Conference, the Enid High School band travelled to Oklahoma City Central to present a varied program of music. A large number of EHS students were present at the assembly and sang school songs. Cheerleaders Charlotte Fiteiman and Jo Ann Caldwell also led the students in pep yells. This preceded the Enid-Central football game.

Taking the place of a pep assembly, a great throng of EHS students, led by the high school band and pep squads, paraded around the square, assembling in front of the court house. Cheering and pep songs attracted a great crowd of spectators as enthusiasm ran high for the top game of the week between Capitol Hill and Enid, according to the Daily Oklahoman.

Enid and EHS students had the honor of hearing Bob Bales, who has been consulted on commercial problems all over the nation, at assembly October 21. Mr. Bales told the audience to act natural and develop their personalities for the future, especially when they apply for positions. Another trait of his, he told the students, was the remembrance of his English, which was greatly appreciated, ended with this statement: "A person should develop his English if he wants to succeed in the business world."

Enid High students were given an inspired, informative talk by Dr. George Cross, president of the University of Oklahoma, at an assembly on November 1. Dr. Cross paid high tribute to EHS graduates now attending OU. Then Dr. Cross told the student body how highly the University ranks in different phases such as physics, architecture, geology, and athletics. He concluded with this statement, "You can't do anything unless the people around you want you to do it." His talk encouraged students to get along with their neighbors, as the only way to succeed.

One of the most entertaining assemblies of the year was furnished by Morris Poaster on November 10. First to take the spotlight was Miss Martha Bishop, a Phillips student, who sang two numbers accompanied by Miss Mariana Folsom. Several vocal numbers by Mr. Poaster were followed by a barber-shop quartet, the Sooner State Four, composed of Romaine Baker, George Miles, Fred Urtuh, and Howard Juhndrow. A short pep assembly followed.

Also in November, Enid High students were privileged to hear Mr. Mike Monroney, Congressman from the fifth district, who gave an interesting discussion on the hope of world peace, the wonders of the atomic age, the love of democracy, and the importance of high school students as future citizens.

Under the direction of Professor Earl W. Oberg, the Phillips University dramatics department presented a program to the student body on December 2, with Virginia Smith, Virginia Ellen Nance, former Enid High students, and Mr. Oberg performing. A special number was Mr. Oberg's presentation of the poem "The Lunkhead" requested by Mr. Selby. Mr. Hudson Wilcox introduced the Phillips group.

Twenty-three football lettermen received their jackets at the annual band assembly on December 15. With the emphasis on the Christmas season, the band played "Winter Wonderland" with group singing by Bettie Vagin, Barbara Blair, Betty Dunn, Glendena Merritt, Paul Tindle, Carroll Morris, and Harold Temple. The "Holy City" with Bob Loomis and Leroy Daykin playing a trombone duet, "Santa Claus Is Coming to Town" and "White Christmas" completed the Christmas music. Other numbers included "My Hero," "At the Gremlin Ball," "Time Out for a Jam Session," and a number of marches. Narrator of the program was Marvella Hern.

Only four days before Christmas, Santa Claus came to the Christmas assembly featuring the chorus under the direction of Miss Maurine Morrow. Besides a number of Christmas carols, the chorus sang Fred Waring's arrangement of "Twas the Night Before Christmas," and Dan Dale added comedy with his one wish, "All I Want for Christmas Is My Two Front Teeth."

Guidance

By

Peggy Robinson and Neva Wedel

New in Enid High School this year was the Guidance Department headed by Mr. Harry W. Hughes, a graduate of the University of Oklahoma where he received his master's degree. He had had previous experience at Southwestern State Teachers' College.

The manifold purpose of this program was to help students choose a career, and them in deciding whether to go on with their formal education and if so, to choose a course of study and a college. It was also to assist those who were not going on to school plan a career which would enable them to be successful in their field of work.

Mr. Hughes gave the Kuder Preference Record Test to determine each student's interest in nine general fields of activity, including Clerical, Mechanical, Computative, Musical, Literary, Artistic, Persuasive, Social Service and Scientific. This test was not intended to show whether or not the student was capable of doing this work, but the idea was to obtain a profile of the student's interest.

The American Council of Education Psychological Examination, an academic aptitude test, was a means of determining the probable success of the student in college. Mr. Hughes tried to build the student's interest in accordance with the result of this test. Three scores were given for this test: the linguistic score, ability to learn and express himself by use of language; the quantitative score, ability to understand and work with numbers; and the combined score, the result of combining the two scores.

The Iowa Silent Reading Test was given to the Sophomores and Juniors to determine their weaknesses in reading which caused low grades. It was not given to the Seniors because of the short time they had had for the guidance program.

Group conferences were held to interpret the results of the tests for the students, discussing problems which might interest them. Reference was made to the sources of information for study along the lines indicated by the tests. Observation made by members of the faculty indicated an increase of effort and interest in school after these conferences.

Careers Day for the Seniors was conducted by the Altrusa Club, March 16, 1950. Seniors had the opportunity to attend conferences with representatives of three different fields of work.

The library has accumulated information on vocations and training for a job. The chief addition to the vocational information was the Careers Monogram, a series of occupational booklets. College catalogues were also available for use.

The key to the success of the guidance program was the response of the student to the information gained in the conferences. The tests were only a means of getting the student acquainted with himself. The conference was an introduction to what could be done about the situation. To be significant in the lives of the students these two should lead to definite planned action on the part of each individual in setting up life goals and working toward them.

Organizations

By

DIAN ADAIR and SUSY LOOPER

As many spokes go to make up the revolving of a massive wheel, so do many different organizations contribute to the successful educational development which EHS presents to any willing student. These organizations, however large or small, form an important part of the learning the school offers. Besides informing the student, they provide a great deal of fun at meetings, parties, and banquets of all kinds.

Let's take a tour of the building, starting at the North Main Entrance, and by watching these busy groups in action, we'll show you what we mean. A glance into the Little Theater shows the Masquers club, under the supervision of Mr. Hudson Wilcox, in action. Though late in organizing, the club has worked hard to advance its basic purpose—stimulating an interest in dramatics. In past years the Masquers have been responsible for a number of projects such as making stage equipment and costumes.

Presiding over the Speech Department's organization is: President, Dan Dale; vice-president, Vivian Muir; secretary, Betty Miller; treasurer, Jerry Allen; reporter, Jessica Thomas; and sergeant-at arms, Bettie Vacin.

Across the hall we go and into the library where we'll meet some of those energetic student librarians. Backed by the reputation of being one of the best in the state, they handle the job of keeping EHS's spacious library in smooth running order. Incidentally, five librarians who started their work later in the year are Pat Mullin, Nancy Wagner, Donna Bond, Carrie Dittmeyer, and Norma Wilkins.

Now let's cross the hall again and enter the office. This is home base for another group of student workers who devote time they would normally have for study to gathering attendance slips, taking care of mail, writing admits, and helping the office girls in any way possible. No doubt about it, the school is proud of these tireless workers.

We turn left at the next corner and make our way to a meeting of Delta Theta. This organization, under the sponsorship of Miss Florel Helena, is composed of those pupils taking a fourth year math course, trigonometry or solid geometry. Looking in on them, we might hear Bob Miles giving a talk on radio, Paul Tindle speaking of his favorite hobby, photography, or Herbert Huklabrand telling of his research on atomic energy.

The officers are: President, Francis O'Neill, vice-president, Gene Stunkle; secretary, Robert Walsh, treasurer, Lyndon Munkres; and reporter, Robert Cooley.

Stopping at the end of the hall to look out onto the sunbathed football field, we see a large number of EHS girls cheering heartily as white-clad pep leaders try out some new yells. These girls, the Bravettes, who put out a great deal of the pep and spirit found at Plainsmen games, took two trips to Oklahoma City football games this year along with their sponsors, Miss Pat Armould and Miss Lous Haskin.

Now let's leave the school proper and cross to the Bible Building west of us. Just returning from a tour of the Marshall Building at Phillips University are the members of the Bible Club, under the direction of Mr. George Pratt. Aside from their other activities this year, the members found time to enjoy themselves at the Nine Mile Canyon wiener roast one evening.

Back in school again, we go to the third floor and the headquarters of the DE Club in the room of their organizer, Mr. Perry McCoy. The members of this organization take pride in informing us that their president, Carroll Morris, was also elected president of the state DE Convention, making him a delegate to the National Convention. November 8, the club held its ninth annual Employer Employee banquet at the Youngblood Hotel with guests from many Enid business concerns present.

Right next door in Mr. T. A. Kennedy's room, we learn that the Employer Employee banquet was also part of the DO Club's functioning for the year. The DO members, who have had wiener roasts and a skating party already this year, are planning now for their trip in May to the Carlsbad Caverns.

Strolling on down the hall we visit next the Physics lab where Francis O'Neill, president of the Physics Club, has charge of a meeting. Along with their sponsor, Mr. H. H. Henson, the members are discussing the trips they will make to the Engineering Fair at Oklahoma A. and M., and the Science Fair at the University of Oklahoma.

Across the hall floats the sound of mellow Spanish. Yes, it's La Junta, EHS's Spanish Club. Did you hear about the gala Pinata party the members of La Junta had at Christmas time? It was held at the home of Shirley Holt, and the happy seniors and seniors hardly had enough words of praise for the grand time they had. During the year the members were privileged to hear speakers from Mexico, Cuba, and Ecuador.

Jean Ranck is president of La Junta, and the other officers are: Vice-president, Marian Adams; secretary, Shirley Holt, treasurer, Sue Bradbury; and reporter, Joan Gentry.

Going on a little farther, we peer into the activity office where several students along with Mr. V. O. Marshall are working on any number of such things as advertising for the Quill Magazine, activity tickets, or bank accounts of school organizations. The ten helpers in the activity office during the day are Roberta Blair, Neva Wedel, Peggy Robinson, Myra Lou Meitler, Leila Walker, Robert Walsh, Don Harris, Billy Morris, Loyd Chase, and Kenneth Franklin.

Our next stop is the room of Mr. Jack McDaniel where the EHS Pre-Flight Club is in session. Created to arouse interest in aviation, the organization includes students from Mr. McDaniel's first and third period classes.

We're still on the third floor, but what's this—? Venus, Minerva, and Juno—all characters of the Vergilian Club's Banquet held March 31—are not attending the Vergilian meeting as their real selves. With Patty Cordonnier and Dorothy Waken serving as presidents, the club studied the habits of the early Romans in classical mythology. Sponsor of the club is Miss Addie Fromholz.

Other officers are: Vice-president, secretary, Mimi Almond, treasurer, Wilma Harmon, and reporter, Patty Cordonnier.

If we were in Miss Fromholz's room at another time, we might see a group of Mademoiselles, (no monsieurs present) who seem to be having fun tearing newspapers into strips. What are they doing? Making puppets of course! The members of Les Copians will someday have a fine puppet version of Little Red Riding Hood. In their meetings every two weeks the mademoiselles also report on life in France.

We see as officers: President, Mimi Almond, vice-president, Joy Kendrick, secretary, Donna Poteet; treasurer, Melvena Schwedland, and reporter, Barbara Bell.

Winding up our tour, let's stop in the printing room and watch the press at work with seven new pieces of equipment. Besides publishing the Quill Weekly, the printing department does work for all the Enid schools. Boys in different classes participate in such inter-class tournaments as basketball and free throwing, in addition to Saturday fishing trips, all to promote good health among the boys. Herbert A. Seem sponsors the Printing Club.

We leave you now, in hopes that you feel better acquainted with the inner life of EHS.

Chorus

By NANCY ANDRUSS and JO ANN SMITH

As the first act of the year the Junior and Senior Girls' Chorus and the Boys' Chorus performed by Miss Margaret McCallister, superintendent of the Enid High School, at the Enid High School Chorus Festival. Held in the Enid High School auditorium, the festival was conducted by Miss Margaret McCallister, composer, arranger, and festival director.

On December 18 the Girls' and Boy Chorus performed at the Enid High School Christmas Eve Service at 7:30 p.m. As music for the Christmas Eve service Miss McCallister played two songs, "O Little Town of Bethlehem" and "O Little Town of Bethlehem." The Girls' Chorus sang "He Shall Tell His Work" by Handel and "When Jesus Loved a Galilee" by J. J. Niles.

The Enid High School Chorus, under the direction of Miss Margaret McCallister, performed at the Enid High School Christmas Eve Service at 7:30 p.m. on December 18. The Girls' Chorus sang "He Shall Tell His Work" by Handel and "When Jesus Loved a Galilee" by J. J. Niles. The Boys' Chorus sang "O Little Town of Bethlehem" and "O Little Town of Bethlehem."

"Low Lands" by Tom Scott and "Holy Holy Holy" by John B. Dykes. The Boys Quartet sang "My Happiness" by William Stockes, and "Tumbling Tumbleweeds" by Bob Nolan. Accompanied by R. J. [unclear], Dan Dale gave one of his famous renditions of "Cuddle Up a Little Closer," and "Music Music Music."

The Girls', Boys', and Mixed Chorus participated in the Band Festival as in previous years.

With the End High Band, Legionettes and solo contestants, the Choral groups added a large number of points to the final total which captured for F.H.S. for the consecutive year the class A sweeps.

The Male Quartet and the Boys' Glee Club each received first rating in the contests. The Girls' Chorus and Mixed Chorus placed second in their respective concert selections.

Students who sang for the school were: [unclear], soprano, rating 1; Nancy Hall, alto, rating 2; [unclear], Nancy Hall, piano; [unclear], Wald Carlberg, baritone; [unclear], [unclear], Melke, baritone, rating 2.

Winding up the year's activities, the vocal music department was represented at the Music Festival by a complete chorus consisting of 25 members, at the Class Festival by a Senior ensemble and at Commencement by the Mixed Chorus.

Officers for this year's Junior and Senior Girls' Chorus were: Rose Ann Lindgren, president; Janet Krug, vice-president; Michael Page, secretary-treasurer. The Sophomores elected Jeanal Moots, president; Shar on Bruer, vice-president; Dolores Morgan, secretary-treasurer. Officers of the Boys' Chorus were Lawrence Alexander, president; Bob Wentworth, vice-president; and Keith Mickel, secretary-treasurer.

The Mixed Chorus consisted of the Boys' Chorus and the following selected members of the Girls' Chorus: Mimi Amond, Yvonne Andrews, Nancy Andruss, Elizabeth Avery, Donna Bond, Janice Bonham, Barbara Byfield, Martha Cartwright, Della Rae Crandall, Patsy Cravens, Shirley Dahlin, Ruth Dwyer, Betty Edwards, Gloria Fowler, Sara Lou Freeman, Margaret Harper, Wilma Hartman, Veldena Jones, Janet Krug, Sue McCoy, Sally Malone, Gracie Merritt, Betty Miller, Michael Page, Patricia Pryor, Patricia Robison, Wanda Seeley, Jo Ann Smith, Joann Stains, Letitia Sterrett, Jessica Thomas, Mary Thomas, Fadonna Wright, and Shirley Wright.

A very important part of the analysis is the determination of the relative contributions of the different sources of error to the total error. This is done by comparing the results of the analysis with the results of a series of experiments in which only one source of error is varied at a time. The results of these experiments are then compared with the results of the analysis to determine the relative contributions of the different sources of error to the total error.

It's a Pleasure...

Our close contact with the faculty and students of Enid High School is a constant annual enjoyment. We proudly record their many school year accomplishments in the pages of our news publication THE ENID EVENTS, and then have the greater privilege of recording these events in a more permanent form through the pages of THE QUILL MAGAZINE.

We like to feel we have had a small part in the fine recognition this publication receives each year in state-wide competition with other high schools. Skilled craftsmen in our mechanical department look forward each year to their work on The Quill Magazine. The printing of this book is one of our more important activities, and each edition is produced with a maximum of pride. It is truly a pleasure.

Girls' State and Boys' State

GIRLS' STATE

By Jo Ann Caldwell and Patty Cordonnier

June 3 to 10, 1949—a week that 307 Oklahoma girls will never forget! Yes Girls State for the 1949 session was held on the Oklahoma College for Women campus in Chickasha, and it will long be remembered by the five Enid girls attending.

During the second semester of the 1948-1949 school year a number of Enid girls prepared speeches on "Why I Want to Go to Girls' State." These talks were presented at an American Legion Auxiliary meeting and from them five girls were selected to attend Girls' State. They were Dorothy Barrick, Nancy Sinderson, Vivian Muir, Jo Ann Caldwell, and Patty Cordonnier.

The Enid girls entered the OCW campus on Saturday afternoon, registered, and were assigned dormitories and roommates. Then began a week of continuous whir, fun, and excitement. Into this short period was crowded the learning of the system of American government by actual participation. The girls acquired a thorough knowledge of officials, elections, legislation, and courts by setting up their own government.

Among the outstanding personalities to visit Girls' State was Oklahoma's governor Roy J. Turner. He addressed the girls at the installation of officers ceremony, emphasizing the importance of youth in government.

Climaxing this "Week of Wonder" was the annual Girls' State Boys' State dance held in the Field House on the North Base of the University of Oklahoma campus.

During their stay at Girls' State all of the Enid delegation held various city, county, and state offices. These included: Dorothy Barrick, police chief of Ball City, member

BOYS' STATE

By David Epperson and Gene Stunkle

Last June 4, twelve Enid High boys started their summer vacations in a splendid way for these twelve were chosen to go to Boys State, held each year by the American Legion on the campus of the University of Oklahoma.

The 1949 session was held on the South Base of the University, situated about a half mile from the main campus. Here the 500 boys from all over the state met seven days for recreation, fellowship, and to learn how our state and national governments are run.

The Enid delegation consisted of David Epperson, Fred Meyers, Dan Dale, Bob Knox, Joe Renkinmeyer, Bud Holmes, Jerry Atkinson, Paul Tindle, Bob Cooley, Dwayne Lagan, and Gene Stunkle.

After being checked in, assigned cities and rooms, and getting two Boys' State shirts they began to feel pangs of hunger. But these were soon forgotten when they lined up at the cafeteria and saw the mammoth piles of food that were to be eaten.

After lunch they spent until 3:00 o'clock learning the names and faces of their fellow city dwellers.

At 3:00 o'clock recreation period began with the choice of participating in the swimming, basketball, volleyball, baseball, or tennis. At 5:00 o'clock they met again for supper—another monstrous meal—and then had lectures until ten.

The next morning they were awakened at 5:45 and a hard week of work began.

Those who were elected to state and county conventions met in their designated places and proceeded to nominate their candidates for offices. The names of those nominated were printed on ballot sheets and delivered to

Basketball

By JIM WALKER

The Enid Plainsmen basketballers of the 49-'50 season proved themselves a worthy part of the EHS tradition, as they harvested a prosperous crop of 18 wins, while sustaining only 5 defeats under the guiding hand of Coach Don Holt.

In Mid State conference play—the toughest in the state—the Plainsmen roundballers fought to a record of eight victories and four losses and a second place berth in the conference.

Starting things off in a fine way, the Plainsmen nipped two non-conference foes, Blackwell and Lawton, in the first week of play. Then they defeated the home team, the Enid Tigers, 35-25, and polishing off the season with a 35-25 win over Frank Gosnell. The Plainsmen then took a 2-1 lead in the Knox-Knox and Frank Gosnell series, but lost the second game, 35-25, to the Knox team.

Despite the loss to the Knox team, the Plainsmen proved themselves a worthy opponent in the Knox-Knox series, winning 14 games.

On December 15, the Plainsmen defeated the Blackwell team, 35-25, in a game that was a real test of their ability. The Plainsmen then defeated the Blackwell team, 35-25, in a game that was a real test of their ability.

had the high scores in Knox, Gosnell, and dead-eye Junior Jim H.

The Ponca City Wildcats, in their engagement, proved to be the next opponent to fall before the Plainsmen but not until a long, hard struggle gave the conquerors a 33-30 win. Hard driving W. D. Jones came through for Enid in the last minute of the play to wrap up the game.

Victory number five was somewhat easier as the Holmen outdistanced the Blackwell Maroons 35-25 at Blackwell. The Maroons then came to the city, showing off the Enid five, who hit 42 per cent of their shots.

The win hungry Plainsmen found two more juicy victories to their liking as they pounded the Shawnee Wolves 52-39 and the Norman Tigers 35-29, to grab Mid State wins number two and three. Paced by Fred Meyers' 14 tallies, the Enid quintet went on an offensive rampage to conquer the Wolves, but they reverted completely back to a defensive style in the second contest, pulling the game out in the final two minutes.

Alva was victim number nine for Enid on January 11, as the Plainsmen took home a 37-25 victory.

Then came Classen's Comets, and the first Enid High setback, a 41-34 loss at Oklahoma City. No one on the Enid squad could match the play of six-foot-five Bob Waller of Classen, who dropped in 22 tallies.

On December 24 the Blue and White jumped back on the win wagon and scalped the Indians of El Reno 49-40 in convention hall. Fred Meyers' 16 markers helped to conquer the same outfit that had edged the Plainsmen out in the State Finals last year.

But then the Enidites stumbled again. Capitol Hill's margin in height was in no small way responsible for the 40-31 Plainsmen loss at Oklahoma City.

However, the Plainsmen found Central more their size and pasted the Cardinals with a 46-36 defeat. Frank Gosnell was unstoppable with his one-hand push shot, and he burned the nets for 18 tallies.

With an 11-2 record, the Enid team headed into four rough Mid State games, and when the smoke cleared, the Plainsmen had copped two victories while dropping the other contests. Shawnee fell 40-36 on their home court, but the victory was a costly one for the Plainsmen, as Box Knox was put out for the rest of the regular season with a broken wrist. After exchanging the lead six times, the Plainsmen ripped Northeast 55-51 in convention hall, but the Enidites weren't so fortunate at Norman, as the Tigers picked up a 35-29 victory.

On February 14 the Hohmen annexed a 44-38 win at El Reno. W. D. Jones was high for the winners with 14 tallies. On February 17 and 21 the Plainsmen took on Classen and Capitol Hill respectively, these being the only clubs who had beaten them. Classen had too much again, as they zoomed past the Enidites 53-41, despite the fact that Plainsmen Larry Welch played one of the finest games of his career, hitting 19 points. The Plainsmen reversed things on the Redskins, however, as they definitely showed their best form of the season in copping a 60-36 win. Fred Meyers was hottest of the Plainsmen, garnering 18 points.

Playing at Oklahoma City on February 29, the Plainsmen closed their regular season, pinning Central 40-33, to assure themselves of being runnersup in the conference.

A week later the Enidites entered the Regional Tourney and pushed their way into the Finals after taking relatively easy wins over Perry and Woodward 49-38, and 54-38, respectively.

Then came disaster for the Blue and White at the hands of their arch rivals, the Alva Goldbugs. Alva took the Regional Crown with a last minute 38-37 victory, following a brilliant game.

But even that disappointing setback could not dim the brilliant season's play of the Plainsmen whose record was an enviable achievement for any high school team.

Those who were awarded letters for basketball this season were Frank Gosnell, Bob Knox, Fred Meyers, Larry Welch, Ed Schroeder, Jim Hurd, Kenneth Young, Ronald Jabara, W. D. Jones, Gene Torbett, John Jarboe, Duane Lagan (mgr.), and Frank Goley (mgr.).

THE "B" TEAM

Winning five out of their last six ball games, the Enid High "B" Team wound up their season with a record of ten wins against seven losses. It was the first year for B team mentor Dick Moseley, who coached his squad to six victories over Mid-State Conference "B" Teams.

Time and time again the "B" games narrowed down to close, hard affairs in the last few seconds, providing the crowds with all the thrills of an A team contest. If fight and determination is taken as any indication, then surely the B team lads who advance to the regulars the next two years should mold in nicely against the hard competition that the Enid Plainsmen face each season.

Squad members of the "B" team included Bert Weber, Tom Manuel, Evert Burdick, Ripper Radcliff, Richard Jones, Dick Havenstrite, Lenny Long, Gene Andruss, Charles McClure, Vernon Haskins, Richard Wackerman, Gene Cerny, Paul Russell, Dean Burch, Joe Fishunghawk, Bradley McDonald, Glen Bowers, Buddy Clothier, John Hume, and Jack Hurlbutt.

The Student Council always points toward two objectives: first, the introduction, study, and passing of all measures that it believes to be in the interest of the school; and second, meetings, to train the individual members in leadership. This year's Enid High School Student Council excelled in these two objectives.

The Council is composed of the elected representatives of the home rooms plus the Student Body Officers and the Junior and Sophomore class presidents.

Student Body Officers were Bob Knox, President; Fred Meyers, Vice President; Doris Akridge, Secretary; Dorothy Barrick, Treasurer, and Jack Morgan, Reporter. Fred Baugher and Ripper Radcliff were Junior and Sophomore class presidents.

Meeting every other Monday during activity period, the Council started its work by selecting nine committees with every representative serving on one or more. The recommendations are brought from the different home rooms by their representatives, the ideas were handed over to the committee in whose category they fell for study.

At the first meeting, the Council gave a report to the school. Frequently bills were drawn up from these reports and were voted on by the entire Student Council.

Among the first of the Council's accomplishments was the selection of pictures to hang in all home rooms during American Education Week. Also early in the year, the Council sponsored the reading of the Declaration of Independence in each room, moreover choosing the passages for the whole year.

Through the hard work of the Council and the art department, lists of players of all Enid High's basketball opponents were secured, and lineups of both teams for home games were posted on cardboard slides in the gymnasium hall. The broadcast of music over the public address system during lunch hours was also obtained.

The Student Council acted as hosts and hostesses for the two nights of the Enid High School Plant Sale to the ninth grade classes on their annual visits.

One of the Council's final pieces of work was the inviting of home rooms to discuss ways to make the performance of a substitute teacher more efficient and more pleasant, a computation of these results later being sent back to the home rooms.

The tireless work that Miss Ruth Moore, sponsor, put in can not be overlooked. Miss Moore was at all times the "push" behind the Council's activities, and as every member knows, it is only through her willingness and energy that the Council runs as smoothly as it does.

Senior Play

"Love Your Neighbor"

By

Janet Krug and Bettie Vacin

With heavy eyes, weary brows, and broken constitutions the Senior Class of 1950 staged their play on a wing and a prayer. The cast members were completely exhausted, but they threw off their tiredness and slipped easily into perfect character. Too many outside activities caused the need for doubled-up rehearsals and for the two-day postponement of the three-act farce by Albert Johnson.

Yes, the curtain was pulled to the tune of "All the Bees Are Buzzin' 'round My Honey," a perfect theme for the bee-bewildered comedy "Love Your Neighbor." This fast-moving play directed by Mr. Hudson Wilcox was both confusin' and amusin'. Not once did the play lag, nor did the audience ever anticipate the surprise ending. A week before the presentation Paul Tindle's excellent publicity pictures had definitely aroused public curiosity.

Characters—? The play was full of them most unusual too. For instance, there's Wingy Vashki, played by Bob Greer. He's the fourteen-year-old son who is obsessed with boxing, playing the tuba, and being in the middle of everything. Favorite line:

"If you've got oodles of milk, why don't you use it? In that dress, you look like a bottle of milk without the bottle." He's a great admirer of Johnny Jones.

Flora Vashki, alias Nancy Sinderson, was one of the eighteen-year-old twins. She is an art lover—man hates. Flora does become attached to Maxey, who is also mad about classical music and art. "He's getting me exhibited in Chicago."

Dora Vashki, the other twin, was characterized by Bettie Vacin. She's the flirtatious type who loves reading and dress designing. Dora sets her traps for Oswald Frederick right away. "I'm frustrated. Ever read 'The Three Sisters'? I'm like them. All their lives they want to go to Moscow."

Anna Vashki, the neighborly, Dutch mother, was played by Elizabeth Avery. She gets a little confused at times. "Sit awhile, Tessy, while Mama talk. With wedding so soon, some things you should maybe know."

Emil Vashki, or Robert Kuykendall, was the gentle, unconventional Daddy who inherits Johnny Jones's place through Uncle Oscar's last will and testament. He brought down the house with his "Can't find my shoes." He also plays a trombone and wears a fine straw hat.

Buddy Brady, the next-door neighbor, was very ably played by Leota Regier. She's a hard-working gossip. "There's just one thing wrong with Summerville. In Summerville, we just isn't any gossip."

Mrs. Jones, the nice new neighbor, is better known in high school as Cece Strana than. She's a good neighbor and quite proud of her bachelor son's candy business. "Johnny's funny about girls. Says if the right girl ever comes along, he'll know it in a minute."

Tessy Vashki, the oldest daughter, was portrayed by Janet Krug. She loves her small home town and is dubious about leaving it to marry wealthy Oswald Frederick. A bee sting on her lip leads Tessy to meet Johnny Jones. Tessy also wins a contest check for $1,000 which she is ready to use to help Johnny. "I don't care if you've got chiggers, your bees shouldn't be so promiscuous. No wonder your bees are so promiscuous, they get it from you."

Luke Watson, the rather untidy garbage collector, was really Linden Sharp. He raises hogs on the side. "You candy's all right. I reckon, if you've got the teeth for it, I'm in garbage myself. Been in garbage for years."

Oswald (Ozzy) Frederick, Dan Dale, the rich, conventional fiance of Tessy's. Small town life definitely bores him. Ozzy does manage to knock Johnny Jones out the top. "Oh, no, don't mind me, Tessy. I just came here to rehearse our wedding."

Johnny Jones, the ex-marine, was romantically brought to life by Jerry Allen. He's crazy about bees, horses, dogs, and his candy business. Johnny immediately falls for Tessy. "Right now I'm the Lone Ranger trying to save Tessy from a fate far worse than death."

Mrs. Frederick, Ozzy's mother, introduced Dorothy Barnick. She's a hypochondriac who

Seniors

By Janie Mayberry and Jo Ann Smith

Several weeks ago, while we were inspecting D. Ellis Kincannon's "No-Effort Razor" factory, the three of us started reminiscing about the good old days in E.H.S. D. Ellis told us that he had recently seen a play with Dan Dale, Vivian Muir, Jess Hookey, Janet Krug, Jerry Allen, Dot Corey, and Bettie Vacin. In a burlesque show Suzy Looper, Sara Lou Freeman, Marilyn Jolley, Joanna Firestone, Martha Lu Simons, Patsy Cravens, Katie Smith, Janis Bonham, Roberta Kelly, Ann Allen, Jacki Kaiser, Shirley Reddick, Shirley Kautz, and Nancy Sinderson did a hula dance. They're quite professional now.

Fred Meyers has become a prosperous rancher at Casper, Wyoming. While we were reading the New York Times, we noticed that Patty Cordonnier was the editor. We called Patty, and she told us that she was just leaving for Casper, Wyoming to cover a feature story on a prosperous rancher's view on a comparison between women and cattle.

Bob Greer, Gerald Mongold, Robert Cooley, and Leota Regier have started a business working out the mathematical problems for the government.

Christine Smith, Viola Rodriguez, Patsy Moore, Doris Meloy, Mary Lincoln, Christine Kochin, Iris Fields, Patsy Collier, and Doris Bartel and their husbands are still living in Enid.

Maralee Festr, Dorothy Waken, Eva Anderson, Dorothy Barrick, Donna Brown, Norma Arnold, Roberta Blair, Yvonne Andrews, Carolyn Luning, Rosemary Kyler, Luella Krey, Florence Kelly, and Vineta Hood are now teaching school. They just couldn't bear to leave E.H.S.

Bud Nicholas and Jerry Shipley have gone into the card business. Bruce Shaw is modeling for a sculptor who is making a study of prehistoric man. Kenneth Franklin finally found the girl who can keep him in line, Rose Farnsworth, girls' gym teacher at E.H.S. Jim Lee Anderson and Jim Meloy are now the joint managers of S. and Q. Clothiers.

Thelma Danahy, Sally Evans, and Doris Akridge are now well-known models for the Conover Model Agency.

Jack Steinberg, Johnny Beaven, and Norman Vandeventer are the campaign managers in Jim Walker's race for governor of Oklahoma.

Nancy Andruss, Wanda McKenzie, and Evelyn Buckmunster, movie stars, are currently doing an exclusive radio play for the new owner of KGWA, Bob Miles. These famous movie actresses' hair styles are done by Herbert Hudabrand, of Hollywood.

Neva Wedel and Peggy Robinson are teaching bookkeeping and accounting.

Dr. Howard Keith told us that Stuart Young, Jimmie Vogt, Linden Sharp, Don Robinson, Nile Long, Don Allen, Bill Imboden, George Gilbert, Gene Bailey, Jim Brooks, and Verlin Cummings are running recreation halls for teen-age boys.

Robert Rogers, Ronney Mapher, Milton Ash, Jack Dragoo, Joe Leonard, Bob Saumer, Duane Jenkins, and Lee Coen are in the automobile business.

Richard Zimmerman, Bob Wentworth, Jim Allison, Sam Cerny, Don Harris, Bob Boerner, Leonard Cokeley, and John White are football coaches. Felix Lenox and Jerry Atkinson play for a professional team.

Dwayne and Wayne Lagan, Bob Sims, Walter McClure, Jack Loving, John Henry, Bill Galusha, Don Chambers, Harvey Brown, Edgar Bozarth, Charles Bodine, Richard Blake, and Kenneth Batchelder are all farming in Oklahoma, Texas, and Wyoming.

Robert Kuykendall, Bob Baker, and Richard Roberts are in the appliance business.

Marilyn Watts has become a dress designer. Bob Vater, Alan Higgins, and Kenneth Wright are managing a Super Book Store. Carl Thayer has become a jeweler.

Ed Schroeder, Glenn Crabbs, Frank Gosnell, and Larry Welch play basketball. Bob Knox has become a referee.

Paul Tindle, Bob Schwartz, Bob Loomis, Kenneth Daniel, Jack Willard, Lyndon Munkres, and Bill Morris are all in an orchestra.

Dian Adair, Francis O'Neill, Lawrence Alexander, Doran Critchlow, Gene Stunkle, Eldon Hutton, Eugene Huffman, Bud Holmes, Don Hopkins, Norma Lou Butler, and Jessica Thomas are doing research work for the Du Pont laboratories.

Lorna Cook, Richard Froese, Donna Hedges, Shirley Holter, Luella Koop, Lois Leabo, Jo Lee Webb, Gloria Whitsitt, Bertha Probst, Jimmy Ethington, Jon Donnell, Dorothy Dobbs, Kathryn Noah, Carmelita Voegeli, Loyd Gerhard, Dean Cornforth, Alma Bartlett, Robert Dulton, Thane Nelson, Joenita Dolan, and Georgianna Litson are all working in various department stores as clerks, and department heads.

Rosann McMahan, Marilyn Mercer, Jane Morgan, Jacque Oldham, Gloria Paulk, and Quita Marshall all make most charming farmers' wives.

Some of the old classmates who have become prominent lawyers are Charlotte Estelman, Robert Schultz, Jody Caldwell, Jesse Tapp, David Epperson, Robert Walsh, Jimmy

Hail, Enid

*Hail, Enid High School! Of thee we sing,
 Thy towers and gates we raise in song,
 Sounding to Heaven loud our praises ring,
 Hail, Enid High School! Of thee we sing!*

*Written by the
 Enid High School
 Students
 Hail, Enid High School!*

High School!

thy brow;
before thee bow,
walls decay;
thee we pray.

Handwritten note:
Hail, Enid High School! Guide of our youth,
Let us to thee come, and to thee stay,
Thee, when death comes, we shall see,
Hail, Enid High School through endless d.

Hail, Enid High School! Guide of our youth,
Let us to thee come, and to thee stay,
Thee, when death comes, we shall see,
Hail, Enid High School through endless d.

New Wing

By

Jane Morgan and Marilyn Watts

As school closed at the end of the '49 term, everyone was looking forward to fall and the opening of the New Wing.

When school did open, it was announced that the New Wing wouldn't be completed until second semester.

On a tour through the building's New Wing after completion, we were overwhelmed as we observed its immense beauty. Entering the Gymnasium entrance, we gazed through the Girls' Dressing Room, which included a Hospital and the Director's office, into the Swimming Pool area. Leaving this, we proceeded through the Boys' Dressing Room, Varsity Dressing Room, Visiting Team's Dressing Room, Athletic Supply Room, into the Director's office, and across the hall into the Boys' Check Room and the Laundry. From the Laundry, we went to the Visual Education Room and then back through the Machine Shop, where Mr. Robert Pyle, instructor, displayed his enormous machines and their complicated operations. We then went down the steep steps into the neat, modern Boiler Room, supervised by Mr. Fred Copeland.

Tired from walking through this enormous wing, we gratefully accepted a lift on the freight elevator to third floor.

Across the hall, we viewed Mr. O. T. Autry's American History classroom and continued northward down the hall, passing Mr. Dale Holt's Math class.

Mrs. George Pratt, Botany teacher, invited us in to view her students looking over their leaf scrapbooks. Next door, Mr. Harold Duckett was pointing out the different types of snails to his Biology students.

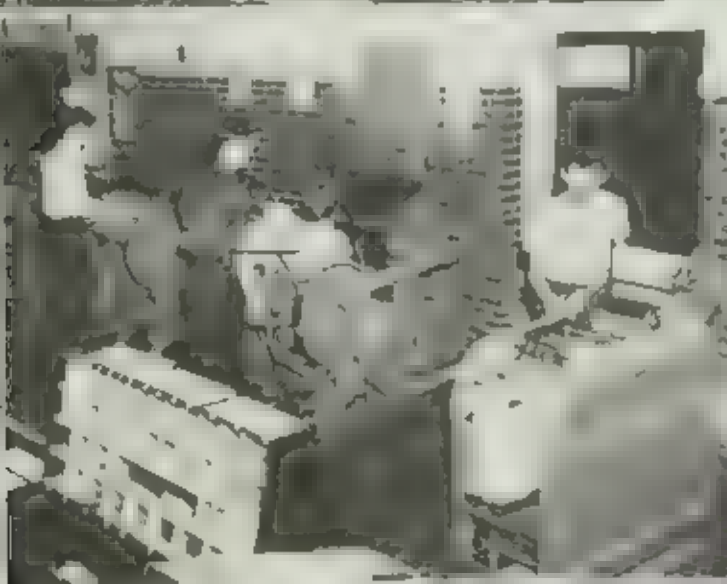

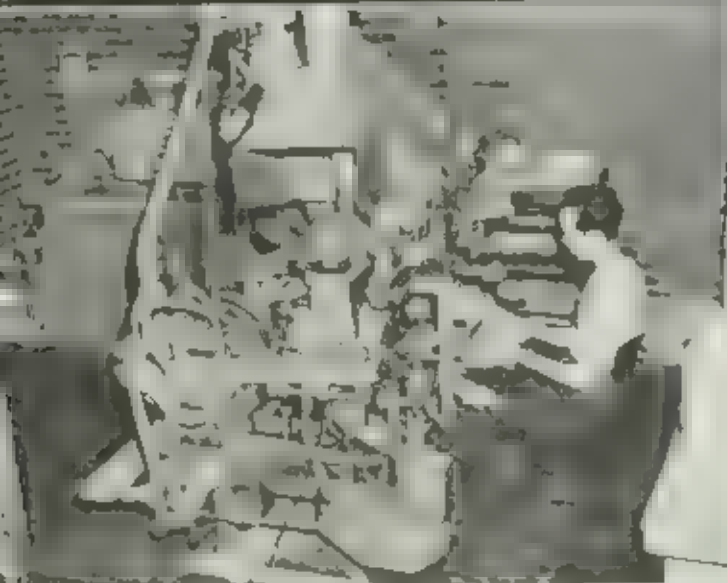

Going down the new, spacious, north stairway of the New Wing, we couldn't fail to notice the beautiful tile floors and the recessed lockers in the wall. Going through the large Study Hall having space to take care of 110 students at one time, we came out by the Art Room, where Katherine Bales was instructing her art students in the use of table top lockers, which hold their supplies, and the convenient storage room.

At the end of the hall, we paused to watch Miss Pat Armould showing her Rhythmic students the art of body rhythm. Crossing the hall again, we went into the Boys' Gymnasium, and through the connecting doors, we watched the girls playing basketball.

Probably no other event in the new building program has attracted such public interest. Literally thousands of patrons thrilled during the two visitation nights early in February proclaiming their approval of its beauty, expansiveness, and usefulness.

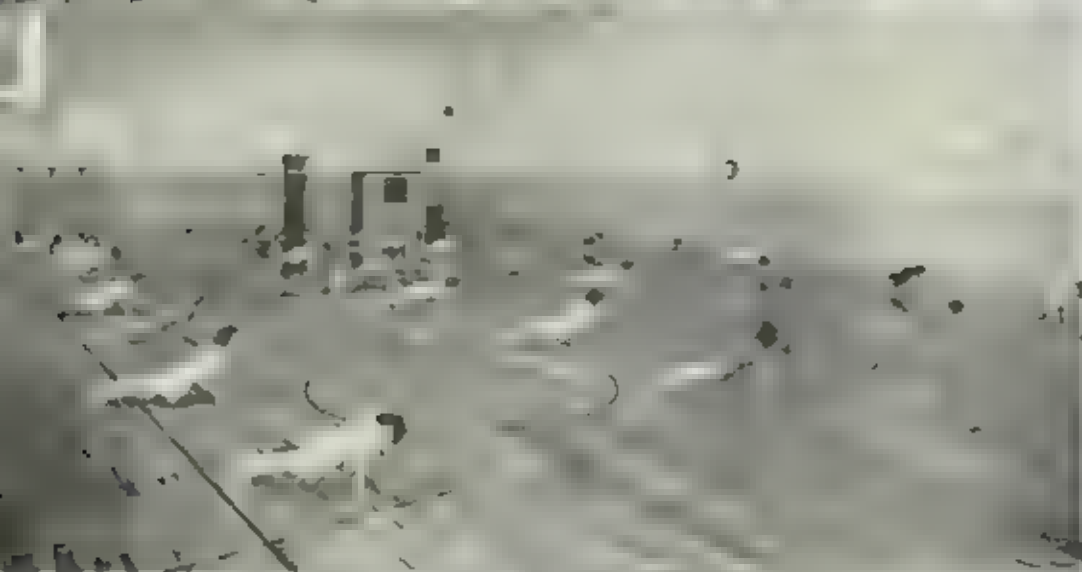

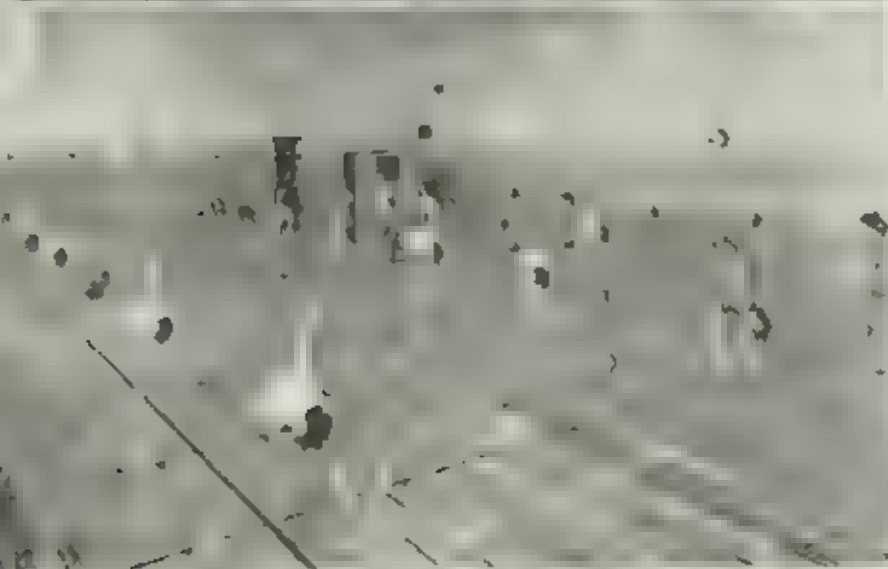

Excited over everything we had seen, we resolved to do everything possible to keep the New Wing beautiful in order that students in years to come, would be filled with the same joy, when inspecting this structure.

POLIO CLASS

Physical Education

By

Jane Morgan and Marilyn Watts

An entirely new and different program in Physical Education was introduced to the students and faculty of Enid High School when the New Wing was completed. In this department there are, two Gymnasiums, a Girls' and a Boys', a Swimming Pool, two classrooms, a complete Laundry and General Checkroom, two First Aid and Training Rooms in each of the two dressing rooms Varsity Dressing Rooms for those participating in athletics, and offices for those in charge of this department.

The Boys' Department, headed by Coach Ed Brady, is one of the most modern in the entire state of Oklahoma. It has many fine facilities seldom found in schools the size of Enid High. One of the outstanding luxuries is the whirlpool bath, used for treating injuries, bruises and stiff muscles, and as an aid in helping persons recovering from infantile paralysis through physio-therapy. Also included in the Training areas are: infra red lamps and heat lamps, massage tables, and all necessary antiseptics.

The two athletic team dressing rooms are complete in every detail. These rooms are for the visiting teams and for our own Plainsmen team. Each has modern showers and adequate lockers, while the Home Team Room displays shoe racks, holding up to one-hundred and fifty pairs of shoes, drying racks for uniforms, and a check room containing all athletic equipment. These rooms care for one hundred and twenty boys at one time.

Another outstanding feature offered to both boys and girls is the Laundry and General Checkrooms. The Laundry furnishes and cleans the towels for a small fee. This fee pays for the cleaning and replacement of towels and is offered to both boys and girls.

Because the boys participate in more sports, they have larger quarters. The girls, like the boys, have a locker for their gym suits and one for street clothes. The girls have thirty-two Private Showers and Dressing Rooms. For those enrolled in swimming the school furnishes bathing suits. There are also classes in rhythmic and posture habits, directed by Miss Patricia Armould.

Miss Lois Haskin, head of the Girls' Physical Education Department, hopes to form a Girls' Physical Education club for those who have exceptional skill in any particular sport.

The Boys' and Girls' Gyms are both the same size, each containing two basketball courts, two volleyball courts, four badminton courts, and one indoor baseball diamond.

The girls have facilities for trampolining, tumbling, and the using of spring boards. They also have wall bars, horizontal bars, and overhead ladders. The boys have all these things plus parallel bars, rope climbing, and vaulting, side horse, and stinking or speed bag.

The two class rooms are used for rhythmic and the showing of Visual Education films. The department owns its own movie projector.

The beautiful, white tile swimming pool containing one diving board, which is the regulation size of sixty-feet long and twenty-four feet wide, four deep at the shallow end to nine and a half feet at the deepest point. The warm water, containing alum, chlorine and sodium, is circulated and filtered three times a day. The swimming program is under the able direction of Dick Moseley and Pat Armould.

BOYS' STATE

the respective cities for the coming election.

Two Enid boys, Joe Renkinmeyer and David Epperson, were elected to the House of Representatives.

Next came the long but interesting sessions of Congress in which the participants and onlookers learned a great deal under the instruction of members of Oklahoma's Senate. The long hard sessions were always followed by refreshing recreation and good meals.

As full of life and zeal as they were, they always welcomed their bunks at 10:30. As they lay in their beds the last night of their stay and heard the bugle blowing taps, they couldn't help thinking of the past week. They were filled with the joy of comradeship and warmth of their new acquaintances.

Even today as they visit in other towns they are sometimes pleasantly surprised to see a familiar face and hear a few friendly words exchanged, helping to bring back memories of the 1949 Boys' State.

SOPHOMORE

Sophomore Special

By Dian Adair and Vivian Muir

Standing on the platform of E.H.S. Station will be some 500 Sophomores waiting to board the Sophomore Special which will carry them through three months' vacation and then will transfer them to the Junior Line next September. There are tears in the eyes of many as they leave school with beloved subjects as world history, geometry, Caesar, and English grammar. But they are eagerly looking forward to row and fender subjects to conquer next year.

All aboard for summer vacation. As the biggest shiny new two-wheel locomotive pulls to a halt before these anxious Sophomores, first to board stepping into the engine are engineer Ripper Radcliff, president, assistant engineer Sherry Hart, vice president, Tim Matheson, Alan, secretary, and Sidney Peterson, treasurer, and Arthur Caine, George, reporter.

Now the doors open to the first car behind the engine and the Sophomore Student Council members step aboard. First members are Jack Harris, Doug Monahan, Jim Smith, George Vanort, Elise Arnold, Harold Pratt, Rita Turner, Ripper Radcliff, Betty Drake, Keith Rogers, Charles Young, Shirley Holt, Leona Darnay, Bob Myers, Dean Butch, and Mary Summerville.

Boarding the second car will have these who have proven themselves outstanding in scholastic achievement by making the Ocala Honor Society. These Septembers are: Elise Asplund, Graham Bratt, Anne Lanna, Campbell, Betty Davis, Bob Davis, Frank Dierker, John Dykes, Mary E. Eaker, Carol C. Gandy, Nancy Hall, Carol Jantz, Hyatt Jones, Evelyn Moore, Frances Morgan, Robert Murr, Lawrence Noel, Hazel Pratt, Janet Ramsey, Faith Rogers, Doris Rosser, Shirley Smack, Maria Smith, Rita Turner, Gerald Unruh, and Jody Wiens.

Getting into one of the larger cars we see a very attractive group of Septembers troubled eyes with pep and vitality. These Septembers Bravettes who were part of the strength of the cheering sections this year are as follows: Beth L. Ensign, H. D. Singer, Shirley Smack, Lou Ann Schmitt, Cassie Green, Sandra White, Patricia Shoner, Shirley Ann Bradley, Patricia Marie Doyles, Margaret Joyce Dierker, Helen West, Leanne Davis, Harkins Ann, C. C. Gandy, Ruth Gandy, Harkins, M. A. Smith, Edith Ann Rogers, Marilyn Frazier, Sharon Bruer, Carolee Jantz, Mary Ann Morris, Sara Jane Major, Nancy Wagner, Joyce Moore, Granda Walker, Marie Welch, Mary

Behind the Bravette cars we see Septembers in the bleachers.

An assembly by Oklahoma Baptist University opened the new year. Featured on the program were soloist Loris Dale and Mr. Jack Waller who mystified the students with his performance. His acts included card tricks, a novel performance of starting a fire in Mr. Waller's hat. With the help of Kenneth Batchelder EHS student Mr. Waller finished his show by causing cards to appear by mental telepathy.

An assembly on brotherly love was held during Brotherhood Week. February 21. The Enid High School students by Rabbi Joseph Levensen, Dr. Robert J. Smith and Father O. A. Murphy, a trio of men representing the National Conference of Christians and Jews, Inc. Dr. Smith and Father Murphy told the students how to get along in the world and to show their neighbor brotherly love. After what color or race he is. Rabbi Levensen stressed the fact that we are all brothers and sisters in Christ stating that he disregarded the color of a man's skin. Dr. J. H. McDowell introduced the program.

A talent assembly by Enid High students delighted the student body on February 21. Heading the list of talent was Mimi Almond Junior, who sang "Gypsy Love Song" and the "Italian Street Song." She was accompanied by Marian Adams, also a Junior. Two accordion solos, "Glow Worm" and "Begin the Beguine" by Russell Biby were loudly applauded. Loy Dale, Sophomore, then sang "The Desert Song" and "Because," followed by Barbara Blair, Sophomore, who played a violin solo, "Souvenirs" and a medley of songs. Her accompanist was Lolita Knaus, Junior. The last performer was Ronald Carlberg, who sang two popular numbers "Trees" and "For You." For a grand finale they all joined in playing and singing one of the favorite school songs, "Sing for Old Enid High." The last pep assembly was held for the 1949-50 basketball team which closed out its home schedule with the Capitol Hill Redskins.

We were very fortunate to have Mary Marlo, who plays Aunt Eller in the play "Oklahoma!" give imitations of a parrot, a girl, a gossiping girl, and a small child to the student body on March 7 at assembly at the Education Building. The students were highly entertained by her antics and appreciated her knowledge of show business. Mr. Selby introduced her.

During the state, the chorus from Oklahoma College for Women at Chickasha stopped in Enid for several appearances, one of them for the EHS students. Forty girls directed by Miss Dorothy Tullus, sang all varieties of numbers. Some of the songs were "Russian Picnic," "Lord Have Mercy On Us," and "You'll Never Walk Alone." Besides the more serious numbers, the chorus sang several novelty tunes.

Came Easter time and the chorus classes presented their annual Easter program under the direction of Miss Maurine Morrow on

Speech

By DOT COREY

This year the Speech Department under a new instructor, Mr. Hudson Wilcox, had a full and successful schedule. Speech and dramatics previously taught as one course were taught separately.

Although there were no classes in Debate first semester, it was offered as an extra curricular course. Second semester Debate was placed on the credit basis.

At the second semester Mr. Wilcox started two new classes in speech for Sophomores. All Sophomores who had made high grades in English were eligible to enroll in these classes. They studied Julius Caesar, Silas Marner, and Tennyson, spending the remainder of the time on speech work.

The Speech Department participated in many out-of-town events. The first was the National Theatre Conference held on the O.U. campus at Norman October 21 and 22. The first qualifying meet was the Phillips University Tournament November 18 and 19. Next on the schedule was the Oklahoma Baptist University Tournament held at Shawnee February 10 and 11. The District Tournament was at the Northwestern State College at Alva March 3 and 4. The last qualifying contest attended was held in Edmond March 10 and 11.

Jere Tresner, Marvella Hern, Harold Singer, Norma Cole, Bradley McDonald, and Quinn Brubben qualified at these tournaments and went to the State Contests held at the University of Oklahoma at Norman April 4, 5, and 6.

Besides regular classes and tournaments Mr. Wilcox directed three plays this year: the All School Play, "You Can't Take It With You," November 22; the Senior Play, "Love Your Neighbor," presented March 23; and the Dramatics Class Play, "Little Women," May 19.

This was the first time three plays had been given in one year. The third, "Little Women," was performed by the Dramatics Class as their final exam. In the play the students had an opportunity to put to good use all the acting they had learned during the year. All dramatics pupils took part in the play, those who had the smaller parts assuming the duties of the stage crews.

The cast for the play was: Laurie, Paul Tindle; Mr. Brooke, Ronald Carlberg; Mr. March, Jerry Allen; Professor Bhaer, Jess Hooley; Mr. Lawrence, Robert Walsh; Meg, Marilyn Mercer; Jo, Jo Ann Sanders; Beth, Bettie Vacin; Amy, Dot Corey; Mrs. March, Celia Stranathan; Aunt March, Jessica Thomas; Hannah, Betty Miller; Neighbor girls, Yvonne Andrews, Norma Lou Butler, Jacki Kaiser, and Teresa Parker.

Outside activities such as speeches for civic clubs, radio plays, and discussions took up much time for the students. Marvella Hern, Jere Tresner, Francis Long, and Harold Singer made several talks before different civic clubs of Enid. Three radio plays were given over KCRC during National Education Week and two more during the month of February. On January 17, a radio discussion, "What's Wrong With Our High Schools," was presented by Vivian Muir, Bradley McDonald, and Quinn Brubben.

Speech students also took an active part in both N.F.L. and Masquers. The National Forensic League began the year's activities with a hamburger fry at the home of Jerry Herzberg on October 19. A Christmas program at the home of Dot Corey was given for all members and prospective members. A line party was the social event for the month of January. After the show the group gathered at the home of Celia Stranathan for refreshments. The main undertaking of the year was a banquet in May, where membership and merit honors were awarded to the old and new members respectively.

The Masquers Club was not organized until the second semester. Those who had been in any of the plays, speech, debate, or dramatics classes were eligible for membership.

Baseball

By BOB KNOX

The 1950 edition of the Enid Plainsmen baseballers proved to be one of the finest in the school's history. Under the excellent hand of Coach John Provost, the Plainsmen won 14 games, losing only six and advancing to the semi-finals of the state high school baseball playoffs.

Traveling to Garber for their season's opener, the Plainsmen racked up their first win 5-1. After countering one time in the first inning, the Enid nine made the most of three hits, a Garber error, and two stolen bases to score three runs in the third. Joe FISHINGHAWK, the first of three Plainsmen hurlers, pitched no-hit, no-run ball for the first four innings, before giving way to southpaw Duane Jenkins, who was tagged for the three Garber tallies. Kenneth Franklin finished the game pitching steady ball.

Playing out of town for the second successive game, the Plainsmen garnered their second win of the campaign and their first in Mid-State competition as they overwhelmed the Shawnee Wolves, 8-1, at Shawnee.

Aided by the booming bat of catcher Sam Cerny, who slammed three hits in four trips, including a triple and a double, J. B. White gained the win. A four-run barrage in the third canto allowed the Plainsmen to coast to victory.

Saving the most thrilling contest of the young season for their home opener, the Plainsmen gained their second conference victory as they edged the Northeast Vikings, 6-5, on the Phillips diamond. The brilliant relief pitching and heavy slugging of Alan Higgins turned the tide for the Plainsmen. Higgins relieved Joe FISHINGHAWK in the fourth and tamed the Vikings the rest of the way. His two tremendous triples drove in four tallies as he gained a well-deserved win.

The Plainsmen's fourth win of the season came at the expense of the Garber Wolverines as they lost their second game of the season to the Enid nine 10-8.

In the third inning, after trailing 2-1, the Plainsmen exploded for four runs and a 5-2 lead which they were able to maintain throughout the remainder of the contest. Felix LENOX's double, followed by Jim Hurd's first of two triples, and successive singles by Welch, Cooley, and Burdick highlighted the Plainsmen rally. Ken Franklin was the winning pitcher.

A veteran Capitol Hill club was the next victim of the rampaging Plainsmen, as they fell, 4-2, in a well played game. A long home run by "Dub" Jones in the second with Jim Hurd aboard gave the Enid nine a lead which they never relinquished. A sparkling peg by catcher Larry Welch in the fourth cutting down Redskin Benny Rowland as he tried to steal second, pulled winning pitcher Jake White out of a hole. A perfectly executed double steal by Fred Meyers and Jim Hurd highlighted the Plainsmen sixth when they scored their remaining two runs.

Southpaw Jerry Haskins pitched a brilliant three-hitter and little Gene Torbett and Evert Burdick contributed some timely hitting as the Plainsmen collected their fourth straight conference victory, blasting the Classen Comets, 6-2, at the Phillips field. The first Enid hurler to go the route, Haskins had perfect support in the field. Burdick's hard single scoring Torbett from second gave the Plainsmen the lead for good in the second. Previously big Bob Waller had erased a 2-0 Enid lead by blasting a tremendous home run with teammate Darrell Thacker aboard in the second inning.

Picking up seven runs in the first two innings, the Plainsmen gained their fifth straight conference win without a setback as they subdued the Norman Tigers, 8-6, on the local diamond.

W. D. Jones' long four-bagger accounted for two Enid tallies in the second after they had scored four runs in the first, helped along by three Tiger errors. Joe FISHINGHAWK was the winning pitcher although he needed help from Jerry Haskins in the fifth when a Tiger rally netted four runs.

Closing out the first round of Mid-State Conference play, the Plainsmen received their biggest score of the year before eking out a 4-3 win over the tough Central Cardinals. After trailing most of the way, the locals won the game in the sixth when Card pitcher Eddie Reichelt walked Jerry Haskins, forcing the winning run across the plate. Haskins was in trouble in almost every frame but had enough in the pinches to post his second win of the campaign.

Making their first out-of-town trip in more than two weeks, the Plainsmen journeyed to Alva for a non-conference tilt with the Goldbugs. Southpaw Alan Higgins fanned eleven of the Alvans, and the visitors were victorious, 5-2. The Plainsmen could garner only seven hits off Alva hurler, Connie Burdick, but made the most of them, helped along by three Goldbug errors. The Alvans could get only five hits off Higgins, who pitched a fine game.

The nine-game winning streak of the Plainsmen came to a halt the following week as the Shawnee Wolves, whom the locals had defeated earlier, handed them a 2-1 setback. In a battle of southpaws, the Wolves' James Bryson bested Jerry Haskins, who although he pitched a seven hitter, did not have the usual fine support in the field. The lone Enid tally resulted in a single by Burdick, a force out, another single by Hurd, an error, a walk, and a long fly. Bryson hurled an exceptionally fine game for the Wolves, shutting out the Plainsmen without a hit in the last four innings.

Bouncing back, Enid journeyed to Oklahoma City and captured their second win over the Northeast Vikings, 3-2. J. B. White went the distance for the Plainsmen, giving up only two hits, but it took the big bat of catcher Larry Welch to bring the win. After Lenox had walked and Hurd had belted a double, Welch found a Bob Boyles pitch to his liking and blasted a terrific home run, scoring all of the Plainsman tallies. The locals could gather only three hits off Viking pitcher, Boyles.

and the Capitol Hill Redskins overtook the locals in their next outing, and they suffered a 16-1 setback at the hands of the vaunted Redskins. A nine-run third inning blew down the Enid nine and pitcher Van Pool doled out only four hits while his mates were combining the offerings of Haskins and FISHINGHAWK for seventeen hits. Despite the loss, the Plainsmen still held a slim hold on first place in the conference standings.

In the longest game of the year, southpaw Alan Higgins again outdueled Connie Burdick as the Plainsmen beat the Alva Goldbugs for the second time, 3-2, in ten innings. It was a pitcher's battle all the way as the locals picked up two runs in the first but were held scoreless until the tenth. Alva knotted the count by scoring once in the fourth and again in the sixth. In the home half of the tenth, Everett Burdick hammered a long triple and scored the winning run on a perfectly executed squeeze bunt by little Felix Lenox. Higgins yielded only three hits and fanned eleven Bugs to get his third win of the year.

For the first time this season, the Plainsmen tumbled out of top position in the Mid State conference standings, and Central took over the top rung. The Enid nine were defeated by Classen, 9-1, while Central took the measure of Norman.

Although the Plainsmen outhit the Comets, they did not play the heads up ball they have shown throughout the season, and the flying Comets capitalized on this fact. Fred Meyers drove home Jim Hurd from second with a hard single for the only Enid tally. The Comets, led by Bob Waller and Joe Kruger, cut loose on J. B. White and Jerry Haskins for five runs in the fourth to sew up the ball game.

For the first time the Plainsmen dropped two consecutive games as they were defeated by the Norman Tigers, 4-2, at Norman. After taking a 2-0 lead in the first frame on a glaring error by the Norman centerfielder which permitted Burdick to circle the bases, a single by Meyers, a stolen base and another single by Jones, the locals fell behind and never could catch up. The Plainsmen outhit the Tigers but could not get them when they were needed.

Traveling to Oklahoma City for their last regularly scheduled game of the year, the Plainsmen were nudged by the league-leading Central Cardinals, 6-5, in a game which went eight innings. After a 3-3 tie at the end of the regulation seven innings, the Plainsmen scored two runs in the top of the eighth and a 5-3 lead, but Central came back in their half with five successive hits to score three runs, a pinch single by Ed Walton driving in the winning tally. Southpaw Alan Higgins, who relieved J. B. White in the fifth, was the victim of the Cardinal uprising and was charged with the loss. The Plainsmen wound up the conference season with seven wins and five losses.

After resting for a week, the Enid team plunged into the regional tournament which was the only affair this year. In the morning round, the Plainsmen shoving two runs home in the seventh, climaxed an uphill battle by edging the Ponca City Wildcats, 11-10. Jerry Haskins, who relieved starter Joe Fishunghawk, in the first inning, gained credit for the victory. Jim Hurd and Fred Meyers were the big guns, collaborating to give the Plainsmen the winning runs.

The afternoon foe for the locals was Chillico, who had ousted Alva in the morning round, 14-1. With Jake White going the route for the first time since March 17, the Plainsmen subdued the Indians, 9-2. White allowed only four hits and sent ten Chillicoans back to the bench via the strikeout route. The win gave Enid the regional crown and moved them into the quarter-finals of the state play-offs.

Five days later the Plainsmen journeyed to Stillwater to play the Pioneers in the bi-regional. The game was held under the lights, the first time the Plainsmen had played at night all year. In a game cut short to five innings because of a deluge of rain the Plainsmen defeated the Pioneers 5-0 to become one of the four remaining teams left in the running for the state crown. Southpaw Jerry Haskins turned in his finest mound performance of the year as he spun a one hit masterpiece, the hit of the infield variety. The young portsider faced only sixteen men, fanning five, and issuing no free passes. After scoring once in the second the Plainsmen added two more in the fourth on a single by Welch, a booming triple by Gene Terbett, and a wild pitch. The final Enid tally came in the fifth when three perfect squeeze bunts allowed two more runs to dent the plate. The Plainsmen were threatening to score again when the rain descended.

Bad hopes and a couple of bad breaks ruined the Plainsmen's hopes for the state baseball crown as they were defeated by the Tulsa Central Braves, 11-5, at Tulsa. After countering once in the first, Enid scored three times in the fourth on Cerny's single, a walk to Lenox, an error on Jones' hard drive to short, a pass ball and a high fly. The Braves knotted the count in the fifth when a single with the bases loaded took a bad hop away from center fielder W. D. Jones. The Tulsa nine clinched the game in seventh, scoring six runs on two hits, three Plainsmen misuses, and a pair of walks. J. B. White and Jerry Haskins hurled good ball giving up only eight hits, but the bad breaks ruined their efforts. As the season came to a close the Plainsmen found themselves the possessor of a 14-6 record and the distinction of being a semi-finalist in the state baseball playoffs.

B TEAM

With 20 boys reporting daily, Coach Richard Moseley helmed the B-team baseballers to five wins against only two set backs. The young Plainsmen found St. Joseph to be their special cousins, defeating them three times. The other victories came at the expense of Pond Creek while the only losses were to Geary in closely played games. The boys gained valuable experience for next year's edition of the Plainsmen.

Track

By David Epperson

The 1950 Enid High Track team got off to an early start with over fifty boys reporting. Although lacking experience in several events, the thinclads, coached by Ed Brady and Scutters Autry, worked hard and made considerable progress throughout the season.

On March 26th, Bill Cobb, Jim Allison and John White journeyed to Stillwater to compete in an invitational meet. White finished fourth in the 440-yard dash, and both Cobb and Allison looked good in the mile run, Cobb finishing third.

On April 1, a thirteen-man squad participated in the Tulsa Relays. Several Enid boys showed good early season form, but the local tracksters managed only eight points. Placing for Enid were Jim Hurd, first in the pole vault; Dick Zimmerman, third in the 100-yard dash, and the sprint medley relay team placed third. This team, composed of Dick Zimmerman, Chuck Athey, John White and Bill Cobb, were barely beaten out of second place.

The Plainsmen's next task of competition was at Weatherford on April 15th. The Enid boys managed third place behind Oklahoma City Cloven and Central. The local team earned 10 5/6 points to outscore teams from Clinton, Duncan and Norman. Contributing individually to Enid's points were John White and Fred Meyers. Enid's 440 yard relay team placed third. Zimmerman, Shaw, White and Allison combined efforts to place second in the medley, and a mile relay team came in third.

With the odds against them and the competition keen, the locals entered the Mid State meet held at Norman on April 22. To the surprise of onlookers, the Plainsmen put up a remarkable fight and crowded the Oklahoma City schools all of the way. Enid finished fourth with 31 1/3 points.

Enid's running ace, Dick Zimmerman, nearly burned up the track as he entered first place wins in both the 100-yard dash and 220-yard dash. Fred Meyers posted a first place in the broad jump and tied first in the high jump. John White was first in the 440. Bill Cobb fourth in the 880, Jim Allison ran third in the mile, and Steve Champlin took fourth in both discus and shot put. Enid's mile relay team placed fourth while Dick Zimmerman, Earl Baughner, Chuck Athey and Norman Duckworth scored fourth in the 880-yard relay.

The next meet on the Plainsmen's schedule was the regional at Tonkawa. Although cold weather hampered the locals, they ran off with the trophy by scoring 64 points.

As usual, Zimmerman won the century 220, and also ran on the third place 880 relay team. Fred Meyers placed first in the high jump and broad jump, and Jim Hurd and Loyd Chase finished first and second respectively in the pole vault. Bill Cobb won the half mile and ran on the first place mile relay. Others winning points were David Epperson fourth in the 100-yard dash, Steve Champlin, second in the shot put, Jim Allison, second in the mile run, John White, third in the 440, and second in the discus; Jim Finnegan, third in low hurdles, and Clay Collier, third in 100-yard jump. The 880 relay team ran third, and the mile relay team finished first.

The Plainsmen closed the curtains on their 1950 season by competing in the State Meet at Norman. The meet, won by Capitol Hill, was the stiffest one the Plainsmen had entered. The locals managed 5 points on Zimmerman's third in the 100, and fourth in the 220 and Meyers' second in the broad jump.

Coaches Brady and Autry announced their 1950 lettermen as Jim Allison, Chuck Athey, Earl Baughner, Steve Champlin, Loyd Chase, Clay Collier, Bill Cobb, Jim Dett, Norman Duckworth, David Epperson, Jim Finnegan, Jim Hurd, Fred Meyers, Bruce Shaw, Don Sloan, John White, and Dick Zimmerman.

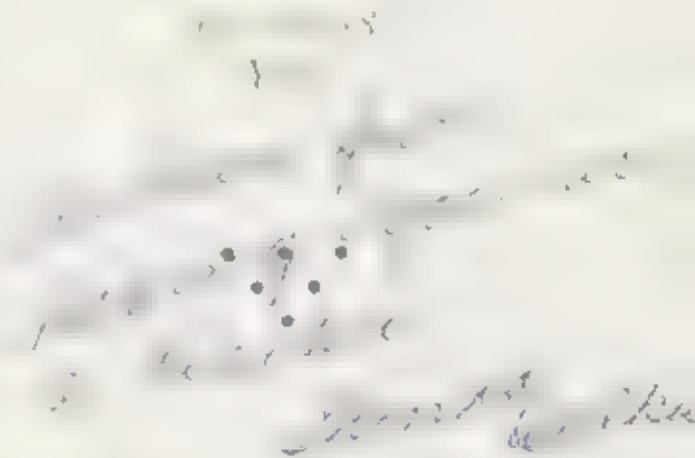

As a result, they had a successful track season, and the Plainsmen with many returning lettermen will be even harder to beat next year.

Golf

By Larry Welch

With limited brawn, the EHS golf team brought home a record that we can be proud of.

When the call for golfers was given by Dale Holt, coach, forty boys reported for practice at the Meadow Lake Golf Course. Intensive practice was found for all the boys while Leroy Coppock, Richard Havenstrite and Max Moyers came through to make up the 1950 EHS golf team. Others who were fighting for a starting position were John Jarboe, Tommy Knotts, Howard Keith, Gene Stunkle, and Theron Miller.

The linksters entered two tournaments, the Mid State Tournament, April 27-28, at the Park, Oklahoma City, and the State Tournament, May 3, 4, which was held at Tulsa. This is the first time in history that the championship rounds have been in Tulsa.

Max Moyers and Richard Havenstrite did a remarkable job as they placed first and second place in the Mid State, while in the State Meet, Max Moyers placed fifth and Richard Havenstrite twelfth out of fifty-five linksters.

Mr. Holt said, "In the future if more boys are interested in golf we could have meets with different schools. With the facilities we have, we could really have a great time in the future if the interest is great." He added, "The school and I wish to express our appreciation to Ray Watson for letting the boys play and practice at the Meadow Lake Golf Course."

May Fete

By

Doris Akridge and Ann Allen

There are things which stamp themselves indelibly upon the memory, things which we treasure in our minds as among our most precious recollections. The May Fete in Government Springs Park was that sort of an experience for the 1950 graduates of Enid High.

To most Seniors, the procession around the lake is just as much a part of graduation as the actual receiving of their diplomas. The girls plan their dresses a year in advance; the boys note the new "sharp" idea in suits. Finally the great day comes. The pageant begins. Here comes the Queen!

As beautiful as an apple blossom, Thelma Danahy and her handsome Herald, Bob Schwartz, lead out followed by their court of attendants who are Patty Cordonnier and Fred Meyers, Katie Smith and Richard Zimmerman, Roberta Kelly and Bob Miles, Doris Akridge and Felix Lenox, Nancy Anderson and Jerry Allen, Ann Allen and Joe Dan Leonard, Sally Evans and Jerry Shipley, Marilyn Mercer and John White.

Continuing the procession, the other Seniors walk slowly through the sylvan setting until that dramatic moment when a crown and a kiss is given the gracious Queen and she sits enthroned, surrounded by her subjects.

A program emphasizing the gay beauties of Spring is arranged to honor Her Majesty and entertain the hundreds of spectators. The national dances of many lands are given; the chorus sings delightfully; the band embolders a background of lilting melody while boats glide over the quiet lake; climaxing it all the stately sycamores are festooned once more with their pastel draperies.

The program is finished; the May Poles have been wound, our parents and friends are beginning to go. As the sun goes down the class of 1950 leaves the park, their shining faces alight with brilliant hopes for the future.

Junior-Senior Reception

By

Sally Evans and Marilyn Mercer

"The Song Is Ended, But the Memory Lingers On." There has yet to be a more perfect song to describe our past 50 years of youth and the present turning of the century. This year's Junior-Senior Reception Friday, May 26, 1950, has to do with the past fifty years, as the Class of '51 successfully attempts to bring back unforgettable memories of each decade since 1900.

What events stand out most in your mind when you recall the years 1900 to 1910? Maybe it's the hearing of the enchanting Blue Danube Waltz for the first time. Nancy Tindle and Jo Ann Pendergraft take us back through the years to 1900 as they sing of the Blue Danube accompanied by Donna Bond. "Room Full of Roses" is the background music for the second number, which includes the swinging of four pretty girls in rose wound swings by their escorts. Still in the first decade of the twentieth century occurs an event which thrills young and old alike—the circus. A circus could never be a circus without clowns, and in this case penguins, so out into the ring dance eight penguin-attired girls followed by white faced clowns in their gaily colored costumes. Ending the circus and this decade is the high light of the circus . . . "The Daring Young Man on the Flying Trapeze" sung by Ronald Carlberg, Jere Tresner, and Harold Singer.

The next ten years, 1910 to 1920, brings us memories of the First World War and songs made popular at this time. The theme of this decade is "Memories in music."

The Charleston, of course, makes us think of the 1920's to 1930's as does the beginning of jazz. The Charleston is portrayed by a group of Juniors and jazz by a piano solo. Included in this part of the program are skits around songs popular during this time.

"Here Comes the Showboat" is the theme for the next period, which is famous for its musical comedies. The background is the old showboat tied at the dock. First to appear . . . four boys in blackface singing "Ol' Man River," followed by four more people from the showboat singing "Bill." A girl in blackface sings "Can't Help Lovin' Dat Man" preceding a soft shoe dance. Again coming from the showboat appears a soloist singing "Why Do I Love You." As a finale to this skit, the entire group sings "Make Believe."

The next part of the program brings us up to the present day and is called the "Daydreams of the Class of '50." The scene is a first grade classroom and instead of listening to their teacher, the children are daydreaming of their future school years. They dream of being in the Emerson and Longfellow Junior High Bands, but soon their thoughts turn to high school. The boys think first of football, basketball, baseball, and track, the girls of cheerleading, and both of dates, being members of the High School Band and finally of graduation. Each of their daydreams is shown by a spotlight shining on different parts of the stage.

Thus ends another wonderful program given by the Juniors in honor of the graduating Seniors. The production was under the sponsorship of Miss Pauline Muegge, chairman, Miss Ruth Moyer, Miss Grace Stewart, Miss Florel Hulema, Mr. V. O. Marshall, and Mr. Hudson Wilcox. The decoration committee consisted of Mr. Tom Kennedy, Miss Katherine Bales, Miss Mildred Montgomery, Mrs. Lloyd Spencer, chairman, and Mr. Jack McDaniel. Mr. H. H. Henson, chairman, Miss Ellen Correll, Mrs. Lois Vance, Mr. Rex Wilson, and Miss Muriel Koget were in charge of refreshments.

ASSEMBLIES

April 6. Ronald Carlberg acted as master of ceremonies. Combined popular song with sacred songs, these talented songsters entertained the student body, faculty, and a number of guests. The inspiring Easter story from the scriptures was read by Sandra Kyle.

On April 14, the annual Senior Assembly was given by the Class of 1950. The program opened with the songs from "Cinderella," featuring Mike Page, Janet Krug, Jessica Thomas, Jo Ann Smith, Betty Miller, Betty Edwards, Patsy Cravens, Sara Lou Freeman, Janis Bonham, Catherine Bunch, Nancy Andrews, Elizabeth Avery, and Fadonna Williams. Following was a reading by Vivian Muir from Shakespeare's "A Midsummer Night's Dream." The saxophone player, Bob Knox next displayed his talent as he gave out with "Scarlet" "Sunny Side of the Street," and "Chattanooga Shoe-Shine Boy." Helen Mudgett and Paul Tindle accompanied him. "Cuddle Up a Little Closer" and "Music, Music, Music" were comically portrayed by Dan Dale with the assistance of R. J. Caton. Mike Page sang "Tune Alone" and "Beware My Foolish Heart" following a dance by Bettie Vacin and Janet Krug to "A Couple of Swells." A band consisting of EHS band students rounded out the program with "Blue Skies," "Moonlight Serenade," and "A Little Bird." Formal opening was held with Fred Meyer, Larry Welch, Marilyn Mercer, Felix Lenox, and Jerry Allen participating.

End High School was very fortunate to hear two blind but accomplished musicians, Herbert Rainville and Jack Crowell, who gave an interesting program on April 10. Jack Crowell gave his own arrangement of "Rendezvous" and "American Patrol" on the organ and on the piano "Country Boy," "Mule Train," and his own composition "Arkansas Boogie No. 1." Herbert Rainville, a graduate of the Boston Conservatory of Music, played "Fantasy Impromptu," "Rhapsody in Blue," and "Georgia on My Mind." He also gave a demonstration of how the blind read and write. Both musicians were presented in the finale "Chattanooga Shoe-Shine Boy."

The annual Bravette assembly was given Tuesday, April 25, at the Education Building. Opening the program was an all-girl band which played "You Are My Sunshine" followed by a modeling number "Sioux City Sue" by Barbara Donaldson. Sports in EHS were presented with several girls displaying their athletic ability. The Chinese version of "Mule Train" was followed by an original western play entitled "Wild Bill Hiccup." Mr. Selby concluded the program with his rendition of "The Little Red Schoolhouse" a humorous reading.

When the school year comes to an end one occasion seniors look forward to is Class Day. Under the direction of Miss Charlotte Kretsch and Mr. Cecil Gott, Senior sponsors this day will be remembered by all students. Felix Lenox, Senior vice president, presided over this day while Janet Krug and Jerry Allen conducted the formal opening. The class history was given by Dorothy Barrick and Vivian Muir followed by a vocal solo by Michael Page. Each graduating class has a class will and usually will their talents to the Sophomore and Junior classes. This will was presented by Betty Miller and Marilyn Mercer. Earl B. . . Junior president, accepted the gold chain which has a link for each graduating class and their class motto engraved on it. Fred Meyers, Senior president, Mr. D. Bruce Selby presented the annual awards to the outstanding Seniors. Several guests awarded different honors to seniors on their accomplishments in End High School. Organizations that gave honors were The Sophia Bass Scholarship, Daughters of the American Revolution History Prize, Lena B. Hansen Prize in Mathematics, Oklahoma Honor Society, Lions Club Science Award, Phillips University Merit Scholarship, and many other regional scholarships. The Senior mixed chorus under the direction of Miss Maurine Morrow sang "The World Is Waiting for the Sunrise" and "Trees." As traditional as the Quill Magazine is the Ivy Oration. The Senior class president of each graduating year plants a flag of each year in front of the building which signifies the passing on to future classes the responsibility of upholding the honor and tradition of End High School.

ing the school paper and annual

On Saturday morning, the 19th, they attended the last meeting—at which a special first place award plaque was presented to Enid High for the 1949 QUILT Annual. This award was accepted by Jim Walker, 1950 editor of the magazine. That afternoon, all students were privileged to attend the OU-Santa Clara game at Owen Field. Then they were homeward bound again—with the satisfaction of having gained new knowledge about the field of journalism.

Back home—the annual staff set to work immediately. Stories were assigned, work on the Photography was begun, and Mr. V. O. Marshall's advertising staff, with the aid of other staff members who volunteered their services—visited the firms of leading merchants to secure advertising for the QUILT.

Slowly, but surely, the annual began to take shape. A few stories—such as track, baseball, and the May Fete—had to be delayed because they took place so late in the year, but outside of that work on the magazine progressed nicely.

Finally, it was completed! Yes, lots of work had gone into getting it ready, but the staff members had also received much valuable experience—something which they will never forget!

Weekly Staff a Busy Group

"Write a headline for the assembly story"—

"Send this copy down to the printers"

Statements such as these were often heard in the QUILT Office as members of the weekly staff prepared the news for the school paper.

The first semester staff of the QUILT Weekly, appointed early last fall by Miss Ruth Scott, immediately took charge, seeing that the news was sufficiently covered by the students in the two journalism classes. This staff consisted of an editor, associate editor, editors for news, sports, humor, exchange, feature, typists and those responsible for the paper's circulation. In the second semester, new students were appointed to take over these positions.

Back of the actual QUILT paper, which the student body received, went a lot of effort on the part of the journalism classes and the Printing Department, under the leadership of Miss Ruth Scott and Mr. Herbert A. Seem, respectively.

The center of activity in publishing the paper revolved around that busy room, the QUILT Office. Just to give you a vague idea of what went on in there during the year, let's pretend that we are looking in on it now.

The typists are nimbly typing out the copy that has been handed in during class that day, and there sits the exchange editor—poring over several issues of out-of-town high school papers. The humor editor is chuckling over a cute joke for his column, while the editor-in-chief is busy copyreading the stories and writing headlines for them. Yes, the QUILT Office is truly a place bustling with activity.

Then came the day when the paper was completed. Reporters searched hopefully

Legionettes

By Jo Ann Caldwell and Marilyn Watts

The 17th Annual Tri-State Band Festival held in May 1949 saw the Enid Legionettes drum and bugle corps take superior ratings in the parade and marching contests, making the highest score in the history of any Tri-State contest with a rating of 99.9. The drum and bugle quintets took superior ratings and individual honors went to Lois Leighty, twirler, and Erma Dolton, drummer, who both won excellent ratings.

Summer activities included parades, contests, exhibitions, and many, many hot practices, climaxed by the state convention of the American Legion. This three-day affair was held in Tulsa the latter part of August.

On October 28, the corps journeyed to Independence, Kansas, to take part in the annual Neewollah celebration, which is Halloween spelled backwards.

December brought the big balloon Christmas parade and the annual Christmas party given for the corps by the Legion. Eleven anxious seniors who received their pins were Betty Darnell, Maida Franke, Jo Ellen Gardner, Luella Krey, Marilyn Masters, Dolb Massey, Leila Walker, Jo Lee Webb, Marilyn Watts, Jo Ann Caldwell, and Lois Leabo.

The Legionettes were also among the many participants in the 18th Annual Tri-State Band festival.

through the paper to see if they had a story in, and the student body eagerly read the articles and stories of their school life. The paper was for you, the students. If you enjoyed it, the staff can consider their work as a job well done!

School News Is Renewed

Each week during the school year a reporter from the journalism classes covers the news from an appointed grade school or junior high in the city. The news coverage of the grade schools was re-established last year. Since 1943, the year of that fatal fire which destroyed the High School, the reporting of the various schools has been neglected. However, as this was taken up once more, attention was again directed to each school, and the reporters tried to collect and write up as much news as possible.

Dian Adair, Ann Allen, Roberta Blair, Dot Corey, Sally Evans, Shirley Kautz, Vivian Muir, D. Ellis Kancannon, Suzie Looper, Janie Mayberry, Jacki Kautz, Martha Lu Simons, Katie Smith, Jessica Thomas, Bettie Vacin, Marilyn Watts, Donna Bond, and Jo Lee Webb were grade school reporters. Noma Lou Butler covered the Longfellow Junior High news, and Patty Cordon met and Jo Ann Caldwell, the Emerson news.

These reporters were not assigned by the journalism teacher but volunteered to get news during their extra time.

Newswriting is a broad field—many various jobs make up that which one calls journalism.

The preceding stories have briefly summarized how the journalism students volun-could more truthfully be called an every man for himself room, for here meals are eaten, smokes collected, plays written, ballet steps practiced, xylophones played, printing presses operated—if there were room enough there would probably be ice skating. With this wide range of individual interests, the little brood at 761 Claremont enjoyed life and in the fullest sense.

However, there is one conventional member in the bunch—Alice. She is secretary to the wealthy Anthony Kirby and falls in love with Kirby's son, Tony. After a week of successive dating, Alice decides to throw a formal dinner to get the families acquainted and show Tony just what he is getting into.

The time is set for the little party, but to Alice's horror, Tony and his parents—tux, tails, minks and all—show up a night too soon. The Kirbys are, of course, outraged and insulted. After attempts to fix a dinner of pickled pigs feet and canned corn and a meal of "Forget-Me-Not" fails to convince the Kirbys of the Sycamores' social prestige, they start to leave in a huff. Their progress, however, is halted by a false alarm by the riot squad from headquarters, and everyone spends the night in jail.

By now Alice is convinced that she and Tony are worlds apart and decides to break their engagement and take a trip to the Adirondacks and forget everything. When Mr. Kirby returns to the scene, Grandpa cleverly shows Kirby what a fool he is to save money and waste his life away worrying. Kirby finally lets his hair down, forgets his indigestion and everyone dives into a good Russian meal cooked by Alga Katrina and, as all good stories end, everyone lives happily ever after.

The entire production was under the direction of Mr. Hudson Wilcox, who was assisted by stage manager, Celia Stranathan.

FOOTBALL

Graduating in 1928, from Claremore High School, where he earned letters in football, basketball, and track, Autry entered Phillips University where he was graduated with an A.B. degree. While at Phillips, he played on the powerhouse Phillips eleven of that era. He also lettered in track.

After graduation he taught two years of physical science at Phillips and then came to Enid High School in 1934 as Assistant Football Coach and instructor in social science. During the summer of '34 he returned to Phillips to earn his M.A. degree.

Coach Autry remained at Enid High until 1940 when he entered the service. During the war, now Major Autry, he served as a staff officer in the Forty-fifth division, and was stationed in Africa, Italy, France, and Germany.

Upon his discharge in 1945, climaxing five years and two months of war service, Coach Autry returned to EHS for a half of a semester, serving as assistant to J. T. King. He then resigned in order to enter the lumber business in Enid.

Coach Autry remained in this business until the fall of 1948, when he returned to Enid High as B Team Football Coach, producing a fine team with many of the boys who made up this year's A squad.

Enough credit cannot be given to Coach Autry for the fine job he has done at Enid High.

RICHARD MOSELEY

Another new addition to the coaching staff this year is Richard Moseley, an outstanding athlete from Tulsa University.

Coach Moseley graduated from Muskogee High School in 1944, lettering in football, basketball, baseball, and track.

He entered Tulsa University and immediately became an outstanding athlete. Starting football as a freshman, Moseley lettered four straight years, actually playing five, as he was out with injuries during the 1946 season. In 1945, he was chosen All-Missouri Valley Conference end, a distinct honor. A team mate on this mythical eleven was the great Bob Fenimore. He also lettered one year in basketball and earned still another letter in track.

After his graduation in 1949, he came to Enid High to add his coaching talents to the fine Plainsmen staff.

B TEAM

The Enid High B-Team under the direction of Richard Moseley and John Provost won one game, lost three, and played one tie.

They opened their season with a 6-6 tie with Ponca Military Academy, defeated Mooreland 13-0, and then were trampled by Classen 13-0, Central 18-6, and Perry 12-0.

The boys gained much valuable experience from which they will profit when they try for A team berths next year.

B TEAM

	Ponca Military	6
	Mooreland	13-0
	Classen	13-0
	Central	18-6
	Perry	12-0

Enjoy BETTER HEATING with properly vented, automatic gas equipment. Yes, better heating gives you maximum winter comfort and convenience . . . provides better health, greater cleanliness.

When you select gas heating equipment for your home, be sure that it's adequate to heat properly the area served . . . correctly vented to assure best results . . . automatic to provide constant, uniform heat.

Plan your gas heating system carefully. Recognized authorities recommend an investment of 6% to 10% of the value of the home to be applied to the installation of a good gas heating system.

HEAT ALONE IS NOT ENOUGH

AUTOMATIC GAS HEATING BRINGS YOU

- ★ COMFORT — good gas heat — evenly distributed — warm, draftless and healthful.
- ★ CONVENIENCE — tailored heat, controlled automatically with no fuss, mess or bother.
- ★ ECONOMY — good gas heating is economical when you consider the comfort — convenience — and health of your family.

Call your registered plumber or heating contractor for an estimate on automatic gas heating for your home.

SENIOR PLAY

watches her diet. "Oh, dear, I shall be ill I know I shall be ill!"

Mrs. Bixby, Ozzy's rather stuffy Aunt Agatha, became real with Vivian Murr's acting. She owns contralto interest in Bixby Bonbons, and buys the mortgage on Johnny Jones's place to put her competitor out of business. "Very well, you have my ultimatum. I shall sit here until I have my way"—and she sat in a pan of water!

Maxey, the Fredrick's chauffeur, was animated by Richard Blake. He likes Flora and wants to help her with her art. "Yeh anything cultural I go for in a big way."

Judge Patrick, the local justice of the peace, was actually Herbert Hildabrand. He brings the news of Uncle Oscar's will. "Well, I've got news that will give Emil something to blow about."

Dixie Jones, a stranger with a deep Southern drawl, was deftly played by Dot Corey. She's looking for "her" Johnny, but finally discovers she's in the wrong state. "By-by. You know, I'm kinda' sorry he's not my Johnny. Y'all seem to have so much fun here."

Mr. Ping, the piano tuner, became his musical self in the person of Paul Tindle. "Did I come at an inconvenient time?"

Couldn't make it a minute sooner. Had to tune the piano at the Rebecca Lodge, and what those Rebeccas do to a piano—hee hee.

Grandma Vashki, Emil's jolly mother, was the disguised Joanna Firestone. She has a special receipt for chicken papricosh. "Puff out the chest and lift high the cheen. Ozywald. What you raise for son, Mrs. Fredricks? The bridegroom should be like the bull, not like the puppy."

Sarabelle and Zuvabelle, the fourteen-year-old cousins of the Vashkis, were impersonated by Donna Hedges and Lucella Krey. "She's an actress, aren't you, Zuvabelle?" "Well, when the announcer gets through saying, 'Eat Heppy Peppy Breakfast Food,' I come to the microphone and say, 'Hmmm—good!'"

The plumber was played by Jess Hooley. "Don't worry, folks. I'll have everything fixed in no time at all!"

Noma Lou Butler and Gloria Paulk were the hard-working prompters. Robert Walsh with Donald Dobb's help was electrician and property manager. Paul Tindle acted as the stage manager. Members of the Senior Class served as ushers.

How did it end? Well, Flora got Maxey, Dora got Ozzy, Tessy got Johnny, and everyone got happy—we think.

Congratulations,
Seniors!

AMERICA THE BEAUTIFUL

O beautiful for spacious skies,
For amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties
America! America!
God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood,
From sea to shining sea!
O beautiful for patriot dreams
That see beyond the years
Thine alabaster cities gleam,
Undimmed by human tears!
America! America!
God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood,
From sea to shining sea!

OATH OF ALLEGIANCE

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the republic for which it stands, one nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

THE PLAINSMAN'S CREED

I believe in Enid High School, her traditions and ideals; I believe in honesty in every-day tasks and in faithfulness in duty; I believe in the joy that comes from worthwhile fun, generous comradeship, and loyal service to my school; I believe in modesty in victory and an unconquerable spirit in defeat; I believe in keeping faith with my neighbor, my father and mother, my country, and my God.
